Butler of U.S. Supreme Court Dies

WASHINGTON (CP)—Pierce Butler, associate justice of the United States Supreme Court, died today.

The 73-year-old jurist entered a hospital last summer, and with the exception of two weeks when he was able to return to his home, he had remained there since.

His death means that President Roosevelt's appointees will be in the majority on the court. Mr. Roosevelt has named four of those in the nine-man tribunal.

Justice Butler was a Democrat, but officials of the Roosevelt administration had termed him one of the two "conservative" members of the court, the other being Justice James C. McReynolds.

Although Butler was the third oldest of the justices—Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, like McReynolds, is 77—he had been reported in robust health during the term of court which ended last June.

Justice Butler ranked next to McReynolds as the tribunal's leading dissenter. He was the only Catholic on the court. He practiced law at St. Paul until appointed to the court in 1922 by President Harding, a Republican.

Pierce Butler's career was the traditional American success story—a farm boy rising to wealth and high place through his own energies and initiative.

He was born in a Minnesota log cabin, worked his way through college, became the leading railroad attorney of the northwest and amassed a fortune before his appointment to the Supreme Court at the age of 36.

His background of rugged individualism was evidenced in his judicial philosophy. As a supreme court justice he was a staunch defender of the individual and property rights which he held were guaranteed by the constitution.

In 1891 he married Annie Cronin of St. Paul. They had eight children. One daughter, Mary, died while serving as an army nurse in the World War. Four sons also served in the military forces.

LONDON (CP)—Colonel Harry Nathan, Labor member of Parliament and chairman of the newly formed "National Defence Public Interest Committee," announces the committee shortly will start a series of luncheons designed to "stimulate and maintain public interest and understanding of what Prime Minister Chamberlain called 'this strangest of wars.'" Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, will speak at the first luncheon, November 29.

Few Skirmishes On West Front

PARIS (AP)—A minimum of war activity on the western front was reported today by the French general staff, which announced in a communiqué that there was "no notable news during the night."

News of war on the sea was confined to a statement by Blockade Minister Georges Pernot that 223,297 tons of merchandise consigned to Germany had been seized by the French navy up to November 10.

M. Pernot, reporting to the Chamber of Deputies foreign affairs committee yesterday, said the seizures included 100,000 tons of raw materials and 35,000 tons of petroleum.

He stated that in the same period the British navy had seized more than 400,000 tons of contraband merchandise.

Viewing the results as "extremely encouraging," he asserted the campaign would be pursued with vigor and perseverance in the conviction that it would speed the end of the war, at the same time sparing the lives of hundreds of thousands of soldiers.

BERLIN (AP)—The German high command took note today of lagging activity on the war front in a four-word communiqué: "No special events yesterday."

Thyssen Quits Reich For Swiss Residence

LUCERNE, Switzerland (AP)—Fritz Thyssen, German steel magnate of the Ruhr and one of the chief backers of Nazism during the rise of Adolf Hitler, today was at a Locarno hotel, where he arrived from Germany four days ago.

"I infinitely regret I am unable to give the information you request," Thyssen telegraphed in answer to a request for information as to reasons for his departure from Germany. It was pointed out his lips were sealed on things political by the laws of neutral Switzerland.

Thyssen said only that he planned an "indefinite stay" at the Swiss lake resort. He was accompanied here by his wife and one child.

Many Pilots Offer To Join R.C.A.F.

OTTAWA (CP)—Practically all private pilots in Canada have volunteered to join the Royal Canadian Air Force, it was stated today.

Some time ago the Department of National Defence asked a number of experienced pilots if they were ready for service on special work, and replies are being received regularly.

As necessary demands, these volunteer specialists are being absorbed into the air force.

REDUCE ESTIMATE OF FIRE VICTIMS

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Informed quarters said today the Venezuelan government would forbid reconstruction of the still-supported shanty town of Lagunillas on Lake Maracaibo, which was destroyed Monday night by a disastrous fire.

The village had long been considered a firetrap, it was said, but efforts to remove the inhabitants to new homes on the shore of the lake had proved futile.

Exact figures on the number of dead remained unavailable as authorities today continued the search for bodies. The Maracaibo press estimated that 300 had perished, but the government press office indicated the actual number might be less.

One revised estimate said last night probably fewer than 100 persons had lost their lives.

Survivors yesterday told of two oil pipeline breaks which preceded the fire.

The reports of survivors conflicted as to whether there was so much oil on the water that it actually caught fire, as early accounts said.

U.S. Pacific Coast May Develop Steel

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two government agencies, Interior Secretary Harold Ickes said today, were "investigating the possibility of developing an iron and steel industry on the United States Pacific coast."

Mr. Ickes told his press conference that at the direction of President Roosevelt he had asked the Bureau of Mines and Geological Survey to determine the available supplies of iron ores and the reducing agents necessary for the establishment of an industry in that region.

He said it would be up to private capital to develop an industry if it were found feasible to establish one.

Prisoner Report Error

LONDON (CP)—Pilot Officer Robert Maxwell of Calgary is not a prisoner of war in Germany and presumably is still with his Royal Air Force squadron.

In a list of casualties issued by the air ministry yesterday, Pilot Officer Maxwell was confused with another former resident of Calgary, Flying Officer Robert Maxwell Coste, who was shot down over the North Sea in October and spent six hours in the water before Germans rescued him.

Germans Reshape Propaganda

By AXEL DE HOLSTEIN
Havas Staff Writer

PARIS (CP)—With land operations practically at a standstill on the western front, the Germans are giving wider scope to two other arms—aerial reconnaissance and a propaganda which is different from that employed earlier in the war.

The propaganda no longer consists of loudspeaker broadcasts and posters proclaiming Adolf Hitler's desire for peace. It now is carried on through dissemination of false "whispered" reports in neutral countries which are taken up and amplified by other nations. The purpose of the campaign is to maintain tension in Europe and cause uneasy speculation among the Allies.

In line with this campaign, the Germans during recent days have sought to magnify the importance of various really minor clashes on the western front.

Intensified German reconnaissance flights have coincided with these developments. Throughout the early part of this week German planes flew over French territory, some of them cutting across Belgium. Some of the machines carried out continuous "shuttle flights" over the Sambre and Meuse valleys.

MENACE TO NEUTRALS

Large German forces are still massed along the Netherlands and Belgian borders. Each day that passes permits the threatened neutrals, as well as the Allies, to improve their defence preparations.

Reports received today indicated a German military plane seriously damaged by anti-aircraft fire on Armistice Day when it flew over Dunkerque later fell into the sea. The pilot drowned and three other members of the plane's crew were picked up by a Netherlands freighter.

A pilot and two other Royal Air Force fliers drowned when a British plane fell into the Seine River near Villeneuve-Saint-Georges last night and sank. The town is nine miles above Paris.

The body of one flier was taken from the river, but the two others could not be found. Firemen from Paris were attempting to raise the plane from the river bed.

The accident was attributed to loss of speed after the takeoff.

Spaniards Firmly Follow Neutrality

By JEAN D'HOSPITAL
Havas Staff Writer

MADRID (CP)—In a Europe at war Spain continues to occupy a special place, flattering itself with being "the most strictly neutral" country on the Continent.

This role is dictated to Spain not only by the will of Gen. Francisco Franco, but by Spain's geographical situation and her need for healing the wounds of the civil war.

In an effort to guard against the wiles of foreign propaganda, the government has taken vigorous steps to compel newspapers and the radio to give a true accounting of their sources of information.

The radio is not permitted to accept news without previous official verification.

The Spanish government recently inspired the appearance of press editorials throughout the country recalling that "Spain fought against the mortal peril of Communism," and declaring that "Communism remains the mortal enemy in all forms, all its activities, and in all its aspects."

It is of interest to note that this campaign coincides with a similar attitude developing in Italy. Close and constant contact with Rome continues to be the basis of Spanish foreign policy.

Another and more recent development of Spanish policy is the effort to increase trade relations with Latin America, to counterbalance the falling off in Franco-Spanish and Anglo-Spanish trade owing to the war.

Blame Capone Gang For O'Hare Killing

CHICAGO (AP)—The motive behind the slaying of Edward J. O'Hare remained a mystery today, but Captain Daniel Gilbert of the state police believes "there's no longer any doubt about it being a Capone job."

Gilbert said he drew the conclusion from reports made by operatives who have been circulating in the underworld since the killing of the prominent turfman a week ago. O'Hare, president of Sportsman's Park Race Track, was slain with shotgun blasts while speeding his automobile along Ogden Avenue in an attempt to outdistance the killers.

"If the murder had been the work of outsiders the Capone gang would be out for revenge," said Gilbert. "There would be a terrible squawk over the death of a man who was as liberal a paymaster as O'Hare."

"As in all Capone killings," he added, "the big boys are all out of town (to establish alibis). There's no longer any doubt about it being a Capone job."

The Tribune said O'Hare was the man who lined up the government witness whose testimony was a major factor in the conviction of Al Capone in 1931 on income tax charges.

O'Hare, the paper said, put the government on the trail of the key witnesses in order that he might settle his own income tax troubles out of court, and so that he might keep the profitable Capone enterprises intact after the gangster went to prison to serve the sentence which was completed when he was released today.

Standardized Propaganda

RUSSIA'S CAPITAL HEARS FROM ITS official news agency in Helsinki that the Finns are being taught to "hate Russians" with the encouragement of "the English bourgeoisie." Moscow has been informed by the same bureau from Tallinn that the leading Estonian newspaper has criticized Finland's military preparations and is urging that she "regulate her relations with her great eastern neighbor as soon as possible." It quotes further: "Finland is hurting herself—no one can deny that."

An Associated Press dispatch from Berlin reports an authoritative Nazi assertion that Germany has decided to "fight until British supremacy in the world is destroyed," that no further peace terms will be offered "until such a victory has been won," and, finally, that "we have no fear of attacking, but intend to let military judgment choose the time and not to be goaded into it by foreign propaganda."

Just how Russia's plans in the Baltic will develop is not made materially clearer by the journalistic reflections of an Estonian newspaper or the revelations of the Soviet news agency in Helsinki. Were the implications of her "peaceful" and successful penetration of Finland's neighbors not fraught with such tragic possibilities, propaganda seeking to justify armed conflict between Brodning and Lilliput would be too funny for words. Germany's latest outburst from "an authoritative source" is merely another threat to add to others which both Britain and France have duly noted.

It would be foolish to try to predict the course events will take in the next few days or weeks. The certain thing of which this standardized propaganda is the reminder, however, is that both Germany and Russia—in this regard, at any rate—are tolerating no restraining influence. There is no Schacht in Berlin to venture advice to Ambitious Adolf. Asiatic Josef in Moscow months ago removed Maxim Litvinoff. Foreign Commissar Molotov has proved himself to be a marionette "statesman" readily submissive to his chief. Meanwhile, therefore, the world awaits.

Income and Outgo

WHAT SOME VANCOUVER POLITICIANS and at least one newspaper do not choose to remember when a provincial budget does not promise lower taxation, or other forms of relief, is that Canada's third largest city has been chiefly responsible for the heavy spending of public money in the last two decades.

It is within the memory of most of us that Vancouver influences, delegations from its Board of Trade and other organizations, between the advent of the Brewster government in the waning days of 1916 and the "crash" of 10 years ago were brought to bear on successive cabinets in those days. There are still many who recall a memorable occasion when the then Premier Oliver told his visitors who had come to his government hat in hand to go back and put on their working clothes and see him again when they had something to show for their labors on their own behalf. This was the gist of his reply, delivered in much more forceful language, to an insistent demand that he open the drawer of the public till a little wider.

What does not seem to be appreciated, what never has really been appreciated, is that Hon. John Hart can not spend money he does not collect. He possesses no mystic wand with which to start an unlimited flow of good Canadian dollars at the slightest touch. If he does not take in sufficient to meet current expenses, to liquidate loans when they fall due, he must go to the money markets and borrow.

It is the cost of borrowing in the last quarter of a century—borrowing made imperative by taxpayer-claim for more of the amenities of life—which compels the able and cautious Minister of Finance to say no more often than he says yes to appeals for money for this or that.

Things Have Changed

TWENTY YEARS AGO—AS A MAIN-land contemporary reminds us—the London Daily Mail roundly berated the British government of that day for opposing the use of wood for housebuilding and pointed out that much of the softwood could be obtained from Canada.

This was away back in 1919, when the great dwelling shortage, due to the suspension of housing schemes during the war, was one of the liveliest topics of parliamentary debate at Westminster. Special articles were then appearing in the British press under the signatures of British Columbia writers. They related in simple terms how wooden dwellings in this province stood stolidly against much more rigorous climatic conditions than even those often experienced in the British Isles. But very few orders for lumber for this purpose came this way.

Nor were the lumber exporters of British Columbia at that time interested in the extension of the United Kingdom market sufficiently to send their agents to investigate the possibilities of converting British contractors to the idea of the wooden house. It remained for the provincial government to enter an exhibit at the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley in 1924 to demonstrate in practical fashion how the woods of this province could be utilized for home building.

That complete house in the Canadian Pavilion opened the eyes of the public and the "trade" as no avalanche of talk or propaganda could do. But it was not until the United States tariff virtually excluded our lumber from the neighboring republic that our exporters woke up to the wider possibilities of the United Kingdom market. The rest, of course, is history. This will be a record year for sales of British Columbia's softwoods in the British Isles.

Again, however, it is necessary to emphasize the fact that unless the government of this province takes steps, and takes them at once, in the not very distant future the great stands of merchantable timber of which we were wont to wax so proud not many years ago will have no "descendants." Chief Forester Manning repeated the other day to a committee of the Legislature his warning which the government itself thought sufficiently important to include in its presentation to the Rowell Commission.

What is wanted now is action, or, before we know where we are, we shall have British parliamentarians telling the British House of Commons that the once great reservoir of timber on the Pacific slope province of British Columbia from which Britain is now obtaining wood for houses, and other purposes, has vanished.

Tell Mr. Crerar

TRADITIONALLY CONSERVATIVE Bournemouth member of the British House of Commons, Sir Henry Page Croft, who came to Canada early this year as a missionary for British migration to Canada, has suggested to his constituents that Britain's unemployed be sent to this country to work on military airbases which he says British money will build at various points in the Dominion.

To the electors of the famous south coast watering place this proposal may have sounded like an answer to one of Labor Minister Ernest Brown's prayers. Nobody doubts Sir Henry's sincerity or wisdom when he argues in support of schemes to get more British stock into Canada and the rest of the Empire. But specific plans such as that he is now advocating—or any others—should be addressed, in the first place, to Hon. T. A. Crerar, Canada's ministerial consultant now in London, who will report to the government at Ottawa in due time.

Only Truth Counts

IT WOULD BE MORE THAN A LITTLE surprising if it were discovered that any contract let by the Dominion government since the war began has smacked of politics or favoritism. We agree with the Vancouver Sun, however, that if Dr. Manion knows of such a contract, let him produce it; or let him cease criticism which may undermine confidence not alone in the King government, but in our war effort or national strength.

We have said in these columns before that this is not a "campaign fund war" and that if contracts are let to friends of the government party, merely because they are friends of the government party, the people will know soon enough. Mr. Mackenzie King and Minister of National Defence Norman Rogers have assured the public that nothing of the kind will be tolerated. Unless Dr. Manion promptly produces real evidence of any breach of these undertakings he will expose himself to the charge of playing politics of the worst kind.

Another week of inaction passes on the once turbulent Western Front. It is believed to be the lull before another lull.

Lexicographer in lighter vein: Webster's Unabridged Dictionary defines civilization as "the culture characteristic of modern Europe."

The Empire Way

From Winnipeg Free Press

How could the Nazis possibly understand the close, voluntary co-operation of the members of the British Commonwealth? How could they understand that the bond uniting the British nations has been strengthened rather than weakened by the complete freedom they have lately attained? The position has been well stated by Sir Thomas Bavin, former premier of New South Wales, who is quoted in the last issue of the Native Son. He says:

"The real unity and strength of the British Commonwealth, the real basis for practical co-operation, does not lie in formal constitutional bonds, nor in the formal adoption of a uniform policy in trade or defence or in foreign affairs. It lies in the close similarity of our ideals of government, in our common love of liberty, in our common aspirations for peace, reason and justice in our external relationships, and for a better social order in our domestic affairs."

We could expect the Nazi chiefs to greet this with loud guffaws. What an utterly impractical, ineffective system! How inferior to their system, in which all freedom is denied and there is absolute concentration of power.

Well, we shall see. The system that emphasizes freedom has a capacity for marshalling strength which may surprise those who hold freedom in contempt and put all their faith in dictatorial power. The Nazis have invited a trial of strength, and they are going to have it.

How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished.—II Samuel 1:27. A great war leaves the country with three armies—an army of cripples, an army of mourners, and an army of thieves.—German Proverb.

Across The Bay

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

GRADUALLY

THE HOUSE BEGAN to get down to business at last yesterday. This is what everybody demands but nobody likes it much when it happens. After our high moments of completely irrelevant passion, after many days of frenzied sham-battle over issues that do not concern us, after fine purple passages and the Roman candles and pinwheels of wasted oratory—after fighting a miniature war here ourselves, business seemed pretty inconsequential, though business is what the House is paid for.

However, business was taken in small preliminary doses, as if the Premier dared not taper off too quickly the oratorical spree lest the shock be too great for the patient. A considerable amount of the old stimulant is still being permitted—six complete speeches, to be exact.

Mr. Kenney, from Skeena, provided the first dose and it was easy to take, as usual. This little man always has ideas and never lacks brisk, blunt phrases to explain them. His talk, brief and businesslike, concerned mostly his own north country and he did not hesitate to take the government for and against for its failure to come up and see these districts for itself. He was especially disappointed with Mr. Wismer, who undoubtedly would go up there if Skeena had any pheasants to shoot. Mr. Wismer smiled very noticeably.

Why, said Mr. Kenney, this cabinet travels so little in British Columbia that there are actually children of high-school age who don't know what a cabinet minister looks like. This tragedy of the underprivileged failed to move the hard heart of the House very noticeably.

As for the C.C.F., Mr. Kenney suspected that its denial of any split within its ranks was like a similar denial years ago which preceded the purge of Mr. Connell and the moderates. Perhaps, he thought, another purge is in prospect.

VENUS

MR. PATON SPOKE NEXT but briefly, for his notes becoming confused he forgot the latter part of his speech. His habit is to stand looking portentously up at the ceiling, extracting inspiration, apparently from the dingy statues of a Greek lady, thought to be Venus. This time Venus failed him at the last minute. Before that, however, he had time to denounce Communists who are trying to hang on to the tail of the returned soldier movement, on orders from "the fatherland." The reference could only be to the C.C.F. speakers who have been demanding better treatment for returned men, of whom Mr. Paton is a gallant one.

The elder Mr. Winch took up most of the afternoon with one of his customary lectures on social problems. An amazing old gentleman, this is an encyclopedia of information, a laborious researcher into business of government which most members have never heard of, an indefatigable visitor to every provincial institution, a good Samaritan to the sick, the lunatic, the reformed criminal, the imprisoned animal.

His complaints against the handling of the drug traffic, his suggestion that drug addicts are given drugs in our jails and turned out to become a load on society; his charge that sane people have been sent to Essondale by magistrates who have not seen them; his grim description of crowding in our provincial institutions was not pleasant stuff to listen to. Dr. Weir thought much of it exaggerated and denied flatly the suggestion that sane people ever are held in mental hospitals.

BOUQUETS, TOMATOES

MR. WINCH'S HABIT is to hand out bouquets with one hand and ripe tomatoes with the other. One of the latter landed squarely in the face of Mr. Anson. Last week Mr. Winch had called Mr. Anson an old woman. Having listened to Mr. Anson's attack on Mrs. Steeves, Mr. Winch apologized to the whole female sex. And then, heaving a bouquet with the other hand he said Mr. Anson was "not too bad a type" though he had been dead for 40 years.

HITLER BURNED UP

DR. HUNTER, THAT GENIAL soul from Victoria, occupied the first half of the evening with a friendly pep talk. He came out for a scheme of public hospitalization, since we don't seem to be getting anywhere with the more ambitious program of health insurance, and he demanded financial aid for the municipalities, at which Mr. Hart, his fellow townsman, smiled a little wily.

As every member feels bound to do, Dr. Hunter did a job of shellacking on the C.C.F. and particularly on Mrs. Steeves, for her talk against the British Empire. He also did a similar job on Adolf Hitler. That gentleman must be burned up these days, every time he reads the reports of this Legislature.

A plain man from the frontier, Mr. Connelly of Omineca, admitted that he knew nothing of the budget or of finance, which are supposed to be under discussion but, at that, supposed he knew as much as most of the other members. So he talked about the need of keeping our boys on the land, instead of letting them flock into cities during a war boom.

Very solemnly, considering it profound advice, he quoted a letter from Miss Mae West, to one of his young constituents who had asked her if he ought to move to the city. Miss West's advice, which seemed to amuse the House was as follows: "A boy in the bush is worth two on the street." Miss West ought to go up to see Omineca some time.

Good old Charlie Tupper wound up the evening in his deliberate, thoughtful style. He wants the government to press the war, but warned it against using the war as an

USEFUL DOGS

From New York Times.

Of the 400 blind men and women who now are guided by dogs trained by The Seeing Eye, 75 per cent are attending college, running a household or employed in fulltime jobs. This is the gist of a report by Mrs. Harrison Eustis, president and founder of the school for training the blind-leader dogs. Twenty per cent of the graduates are salesmen, a recent survey disclosed; 18 per cent operators of merchandise stands, 13 per cent students, 8 per cent workers in hand industry, 7 per cent home teachers, and 5 per cent proprietors of one or another sort of business. Apparently the owners of blind-leader dogs fare a little better as to employment, on a percentage basis, than the adult population.

ONE KIND THAT'S PLENTIFUL

From Detroit News

The Nazis admit a shortage of whale oil. While the banana holds out, however, it is believed the faithful can be held in line.

Revelation Through Molotoff

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

THE mendacity of Molotoff's speech is important for what it reveals of the sort of mind and policy with which the rest of the world has to cope. Its importance is augmented by the fact that the Soviet government not only rules the Soviet Union but sets the line slavishly followed by Communist Party members throughout the world.

If Stalin changes his mind, French, British, American and all the other Communists change theirs.

NOW, Stalin—this time through the mouth of Molotoff—and Hitler are talking each other's language in almost identical words. This is a matter of first rate significance. Because the Nazi and Soviet governments regard war in Clausewitz's terms, as merely the transference of politics to the realm of force, and they count on political organization and political propaganda as their most important weapons.

Without question both would rather use the threat of force than force itself. Being possessed of formidable defences against the penetration of counter-political ideas into their own domains, together with very effective systems for penetration into the domains of others, they are, in a sense, sincere in their desire for "peace."

Their tactic is the step-by-step tactic, isolating every armed engagement and ending every isolated victory with a "peace"—in which to make the political preparations for another engagement.

They figure that their own peoples, in whom a political coma and dulled resignation are the result of long suppression and intimidation, will be better able to endure the nerve-racking process of start-stop-start-stop than are the peoples in countries where greater awareness, more freedom, and more individual responsibility are accompanied by a correspondingly greater tension of nerves. Therefore, they would like to return the war for the moment to a pure war of nerves, for there they feel more confident of success.

STALIN'S contribution to the war of nerves has been prodigious. He has spread doubt and confusion in the ranks of all those throughout the world who give to the Soviet Union a slavish though often idealistic devotion. The propaganda against the British

SUGGESTS READING WELLS

To the Editor:—May I commend the reading of H. G. Wells' book, "Shape of Things to Come" to anyone who wishes to look beyond the superficial causes of this war, and see it in its true light as a world economic conflict. The book was written in 1933, and is a remarkably true prediction of events as they have happened since then. Wells shows how the world was mined for war eight years in advance, and how it was inevitable that Poland should be the first mine to explode. We hope he is wrong in his predictions about the outcome of the war, but we must give him great credit for having had the vision to see the truth of present-day happenings six years ago.

GETTING LUMBAGO

From Canadian Doctor

Husband (feeling a twinge in his back while he is tuning the radio): "I believe I'm getting lumbago." Wife: "What's the use dear? You won't be able to understand a word they say."

excuse for neglecting other business. He wanted a long-term road program, including the Hope-Princeton Road, instead of the present system of giving the public works engineers a surprise package of money in midsummer when it is almost too late to do any good work.

HIGH WAR POSTS NONPOLITICAL

From Ottawa Journal

It is but fair to say, we think, that in his appointments to high war posts, Mr. King has not played politics. Major-General McNaughton, placed as head of the first Canadian division, is not a Liberal. Mr. Wallace Campbell, head of the war supply board, is not a Liberal. Mr. McG. Stewart, coal administrator, is not a Liberal. Mr. Henry Borden (a nephew of Sir Robert Borden), given important war work, is not a Liberal. Further, most of the important war bureaus created or headed by distinguished civil servants; men without politics. Similarly, we may be permitted to doubt whether war contracts let by Mr. Wallace Campbell or the war supply board carry party favoritism.

British Front Line Ready for Any Test

By EDWIN JOHNSON
LONDON (CP)—The laconic, almost routine "all quiet" of the official war communiques means anything but inactivity to the troops manning the British sector of the western front.

True, the war for them has not entered the phase of roaring guns, hand-to-hand encounters with the enemy, strafing from the air, devastation or casualties. But it is far more than a campaign of sniping and pulling faces across the so-called no-man's land.

Since the Tommies took over their allotted sector about six weeks ago there has been no let-up in preparing for the expected blow of Adolf Hitler's secret. Whatever his plans may be, the Allied high command appears ready for him.

Whether the blow falls today or next spring, they are ready. All are proud of what their collective efforts have accomplished

I have just returned from an extended tour of this sector, where I walked through the maze of advance trenches, superbly built and protected, inspected the strategically-placed pillboxes and blockhouses, and generally witnessed the rise of a modern defensive wall on an old battlefield.

As a tactical expert remarked, "the Nazis will find this anything but an easy way around should they try to launch their assault against the British."

The general belief prevailing in France is that the initiative will be left to Hitler. When or where he may decide to act remains his secret. Whatever his plans may be, the Allied high command appears ready for him.

Whether the blow falls today or next spring, they are ready. All are proud of what their collective efforts have accomplished and are going ahead with ever-widening operations with quiet confidence.

Part-time Workers Given No Relief

TORONTO (CP)—Members of a deputation of part-time employees of the city parks department told the Toronto board of control they were "freezing and starving" while members of German-born families were being cared for by civic relief.

Mayor Ralph Day told the delegation that neither the board nor civic officials could help them. It was revealed that under new Ontario government regulations which went into force a few days ago, part-time civic employees and others making less than $1,000 a year will not be granted relief.

The Red Cross Society received in cash and supplies from the public of Canada over $35,000,000 during the last war.

HUGHES WINS COLLIER TROPHY

NEW YORK—Howard Hughes' name was officially added to the list of aviation's immortals today, Friday, November 17, with the announcement that he has been awarded the famous Collier Trophy "for the greatest achievement in aviation in America, the value of which has been thoroughly demonstrated by actual use during the preceding year."

The award, as announced in the current issue of Collier's Weekly, was based on the following citation:

"To Howard Hughes and his associates for their epoch-making round-the-world flight in 91 hours 14 minutes. This flight involved notable advances in aerial navigation, communications and engineering; demonstrated the value of organization and planning in long-range aircraft operation and afforded a world-wide demonstration of the superiority of American aviation products and techniques."

The trophy, which will be presented formally later by President Roosevelt, was established in 1911 by Robert J. Collier, son of the founder of Collier's Weekly, and is awarded each year under the auspices of the National Aeronautic Association.

The trophy committee is composed of leaders in American aviation, under the chairmanship of Major James E. Doolittle.

SAN FRANCISCO (CP)—The feminine bathing beauty is coming back, bathing suit manufacturers say. Gone are the stark masculine lines of recent years. "Women want to get away from skidless, scanty suits," he said. "From now on they're going to have sex appeal, style and allure."

Church W.A. Bazaars Net Handsome Proceeds

Cathedral, Victoria West and First United Yesterday

Despite the pressure of war work, churchwomen of the city still find time to devote to the raising of funds essential to carrying on of mission endeavor, and a series of bazaars held yesterday paid handsome dividends for the many hours of patient work represented in the well-stocked stalls.

NURSERY RHYME FAIR

The familiar old nursery rhymes formed the novel theme for the annual bazaar arranged by the various groups of the Women's Association of First United Church and held in the schoolroom yesterday afternoon. Over $500 was realized from the undertaking.

Mrs. Hugh McLeod, wife of the pastor, declared the affair open, with a brief word of congratulation to the hard-working conveners and committees and hopes for its success. Mrs. A. S. Christie, the president, and Mrs. J. B. Munro, the general convenor, welcomed the many visitors.

Each group took one of the nursery rhymes as the theme for its stall, cleverly carrying out the idea, not only in the decorative scheme, but also in the nature of the wares displayed, and much admiration was expressed at the ingenuity displayed. The various stalls were splendidly patronized and at the close of the afternoon practically everything had been sold.

CATHEDRAL W.A.

In the Memorial Hall of Christ Church Cathedral the joint efforts of the senior evening branch, the business women's and the girls' branches of the W.A., assisted by the cathedral branch of the A.Y.P.A., as represented in the attractive stalls, were rewarded by the handsome sum of $340.

Mrs. Spencer H. Elliott welcomed the guests, and the Dean of Columbia, Very Rev. Spencer H. Elliott, formally opened the affair, pointing out the need for increased effort on behalf of missions.

The gymnasium presented a gay scene with prettily-decorated stalls, tempting stands of fruits and vegetables, as well as flowers and plants, and tea tables with attractive vases of chrysanthemums. The stalls were well patronized, and the goods displayed found ready purchasers.

VICTORIA WEST W.M.S.

Mrs. R. W. Mayhew, in a graceful little address commending its aims and objects, performed the opening ceremony at the bazaar arranged by the Women's Auxiliary of the Victoria West United Church, and held in the social hall of the church yesterday afternoon. The affair netted nearly $300 for the funds.

Introduced by Mrs. George H. Guy, the president, Mrs. Mayhew was presented with a lovely corsage bouquet of rose carnations and violets by Mrs. G. W. Johnson. The reception committee included Mrs. Guy, Mrs. C. D. Clarke and Miss Sarah Beattie. Stalls were gaily decorated with crepe paper in various harmonizing colors, and were ably conducted by members of the auxiliary. Plain and fancy sewing attracted the ladies, who were generous with their patronage. The home cooking and other articles for sale and the entertainments all proved popular.

The tearoom was gay with rose and bronze chrysanthemums. Dinner was served to a large crowd of members of the congregation and their friends who stayed for the concert arranged for the evening, when about 20 pupils of Miss Miller's kindergarten class were heard in recitations and choruses. The stage was banked with foliage and bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, the work of Mrs. W. Caley.

ENGAGEMENTS

SAWBRIDGE—CROWTHER
The engagement is announced of Elsie Emma, second daughter of Mrs. M. Crowther, 423 Boleskine Road, and the late Mr. G. T. Crowther, to Mr. Harold H. Sawbridge, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sawbridge, Manchester, England. The wedding will take place quietly this month.

Social and Personal

News has been received from England of the birth of a daughter to Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. C. A. Pollock, R.N., in Stansted, Essex. Mrs. Pollock was the former Patsy Heming of Victoria.

Mrs. W. J. Asselstine, Mrs. J. Dickson and Mrs. J. Stevenson, who accompanied their husbands to the convention of the B.C. division of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy now being held in Vancouver, were among the Victoria guests when Mrs. C. S. Craddock entertained at tea at her home on West King Edward Avenue yesterday afternoon.

Col. and Mrs. T. M. Knox, Rockland Avenue, entertained informally at dinner last night in honor of Colonel and Mrs. William H. Patton of Seattle, Mrs. Otis Wright of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. H. Boyken and her daughter, Miss Mary Boyken of New York City, the whole party later going on to the Anthony Williams recital.

Following the Anthony Williams recital at the Metropolitan Church last night, Mrs. W. Curtis Sampson entertained at her home, "Molton Combe," Newport Avenue, in compliment to Mr. Williams and the assisting organist, Mr. Edward Parsons. About 50 guests were invited, and assisting the hostess were her sister, Mrs. H. R. Beaven, and three nieces—Mrs. L. Duke, Mrs. Cuthbert Holmes and Mrs. F. J. D. Pemberton; also her house guest, Mrs. William Scott of Ganges Harbor. Supper was served in buffet style from a table centred with a bowl of single bronze chrysanthemums.

Miss Elsie Crowther was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower held last evening at the home of Miss Kathleen Clarke, 554 Dupplin Road, when Mrs. R. Askey and Mrs. J. Atkin were joint hostesses with Miss Clarke. The gifts were presented in a basket decorated with mauve crepe paper, and the guest of honor received a corsage bouquet of roses. A buffet supper was served from a table arranged with mauve chrysanthemums. The guests were Mesdames Crowther, E. Woodbridge, D. Munro, J. Duellingford, G. Ashman, J. Leason, J. Thomson, S. Elston, W. Champion, A. McGregor, J. Miller, K. Cameron, W. Askey, A. Morsen, W. Cutt, K. Jennings, and Misses Nancy Boyd, N. Cullen, I. and J. Gibson, Ruth Wallace, M. Sparrowhawk, P. Alexander, C. Boyer, W. Cadwallader, B. Boyce, D. Brooks, Joyce Finch, Dorothy Phillips, Evelyn Ledson, Mary Crowther, Bernice Unwin and Mona Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baxter (nee Margaret Panting) were the guests of honor Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baxter, "Deerfoot Lodge," at a miscellaneous and pantry shower tendered them by friends in the Luxton and Happy Valley districts. Bronze chrysanthemums were effectively used in decorating. Best wishes from the assembled guests were conveyed by Mrs. J. Trace, the guests of honor warmly thanking. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Smith (View Royal), Mesdames J. H. Downard, R. B. Hoag, C. Smith, M. A. Morrow, J. H. Trace, A. Hobbs, A. Silman, J. T. Gill, A. Landridge, B. Hancock, A. Hankin, A. Rhode, W. Henderson, G. Duncan, A. Ryan, D. Welch, R. Richards, C. Sears, S. Hutchison, A. Strathearn, D. Flatman, A. Ramsfield, W. Gableman and C. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Forde, Central Avenue, went over to Seattle yesterday afternoon to spend a few days with friends.

Miss Hazel Williamson was hostess recently at her home on Old Esquimalt Road, to the members of her bridge club. After an enjoyable evening was spent and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. I. Catteroll. The prize winner was Miss Olive Chisholm. The members present included: Mrs. A. Langton, Misses Marie Costello, Lillian Braithwaite, Helen Carlin, Olive Chisholm, Doreen Petherbridge and Hazel Williamson. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Olive Chisholm, Haultain Street.

Yesterday afternoon and evening the mothers of the girls of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 2 of Victoria, sponsored a bridge-tee-in-aid of the lodge. Mrs. A. Hourston, mother of one of the past queens, lent her home on Vining Street for the affair. Bridge was played in the afternoon, tea being served later. The winner of the bridge at this time was Mrs. J. McIntosh. In the evening the winners were Mrs. E. Hanratty of Roskin, B.C., and Mrs. E. Hole. On behalf of the girls and council, Mrs. Jean Thomson, Bethel guardian, expressed her thanks for the co-operation of the many friends who helped and supported the bridge.

Women Press for Public Hearings On Food Prices

Provincial Council of Women Deplore "Unwarranted Rise"; Condemn Overcrowding in Blind School at Point Grey as Fire Hazard; Want Women On Food Boards.

The rise in prices of foodstuffs was brought to the fore at this morning's session of the Provincial Council of Women, held in the Y.W.C.A. and attended by delegates from Vancouver, Victoria, New Westminster, North Vancouver, Kamloops, Chilliwack and Nanaimo. Mrs. F. J. Rolston of Vancouver, provincial president, was in the chair.

The subject was introduced in a resolution from Nanaimo asking for the establishment by the Federal Board of Food Control of provincial and regional boards, and that hoarding of foodstuffs be condemned.

After much discussion, an alternative resolution from Victoria council was passed requesting the "Wartime Prices and Food Board" to open public hearings to investigate the unwarranted rise in the price of food since August, 1939, and, furthermore, that women be appointed as members of such hearing committees.

SCHOOL'S FIRE HAZARD

The provincial government will be asked to extend the facilities for caring for children at the Provincial School for Blind Children at Point Grey. The meeting decided on this course of action after discussing a resolution from New Westminster council which declared that the accommodation at the school was totally inadequate, causing overcrowded conditions which had been condemned by the fire marshal.

Other resolutions pertaining to the inadequacy of the present old age pensions, the alleged need of reopening the provincial camps for the care of destitute, single men, and, from Vancouver, urging the British Columbia government to accept the responsibility for the care and treatment of the eyes of necessitous children in the public schools, were all referred back to their sponsor councils for further study.

The meeting also passed a resolution from New Westminster council suggesting that public speaking elimination contests be held in the senior high schools, the topic to be one definitely relating to peace and stressing the ideals of democracy, the final winner to be the Canadian speaker at the annual ceremony at the Peace Arch at Blaine.

The meeting recorded its gratification at the start being made by the provincial government on the new building for women prisoners at Oakalla.

Mrs. F. J. Rolston in an informal report on the voluntary registration of women announced that about 22,000 women in British Columbia had enrolled.

The matter of the national endowment fund was brought up and referred back to the Local Councils for their individual consideration.

Correspondence included a letter from Lady Pentland, acknowledging condolences sent on the death of her mother, the late Dowager Marchioness of Aberdeen, founder of the International Council of Women.

The weekly meeting of the First United Y.P.S. was held on Tuesday evening with the president, Mary Loudoun, in the chair. Announcement was made of the Y.P. conference to be held on Saturday and Sunday at Centennial United Church, starting at 2.30. As many members as could possibly go were asked to attend. A short talk on "Christian Culture" was given by the deaconess, Miss M. McDougall. The group then proceeded to St. Andrew's Cathedral which they were shown through by Rev. Father Gaudette.

Women's Club Closed

PARIS (CP) — Reid Hall, Paris centre for American university women, has been closed for the duration of the war, Crosby Hall, London headquarters of the International Federation of University Women, is being used for billeting purposes.

Refreshments were served at the end of the meeting and a social half hour enjoyed.

Parents See Manual Arts Exhibition

Sir James Douglas School P.T.A. met Tuesday when a large number of parents visited the library and saw the exhibition of manual arts on display. The librarian, Miss McNaughton, greeted the visitors.

A business meeting followed in the auditorium, the president, Mrs. Jamie Cameron, in the chair. Musical numbers included: Duet by Miss Nan Wilson and Miss Jean Sargison, accompanied by Mrs. Firth; solo, Mr. John Bell, accompanied by Mr. G. Peaker; Miss Eugenie Perry spoke on the women poets of Canada, as this is Canadian Authors' Week, and Miss Hazel King of the public library staff spoke on children's books. The vote of thanks to the speakers was moved by Mrs. J. H. Russell.

Mrs. Ben Davies read two articles from a recent issue of the British Columbia Parent-Teachers' Federation Magazine.

"In pioneer times, I've heard grand-mother say,
"They baked lovely bread using ovens of clay."
"But the secret today of our bread-making power,"
Says Purity Maid, "is Purity Flour."

PURITY MAID SAYS:

"Canada is a northern country, and subject to a northern climate, but we can grow a wide variety of high grade products—just for that very reason. Wheat for example. Canada grows the best wheat in the world. The long days of sunshine on Canada's prairies produce a hard wheat such as bakers all over the world prefer. That's why Purity Flour is such a particularly good flour for bread. It is milled from carefully selected, hard Canadian wheat. It makes MORE bread and BETTER bread. And it's just as good for cakes and pastry! Try this bread recipe with Purity Flour next baking day:

STRAIGHT DOUGH OR 4 1/2 HOUR METHOD (4 LOAVES)

3 compressed yeast cakes
4 cups water
3 tablespoons white sugar
2 tablespoons salt
(About) 12 cups sifted Purity Flour
2 tablespoons shortening (melted)
METHOD—Dissolve yeast in 1/2 cup lukewarm water. In the remaining liquid (which should not be above 100 degrees F.) dissolve the sugar and salt; then add yeast. Mix in sufficient flour to make a soft batter, add shortening and beat well. Stir in sufficient flour to produce a dough soft enough to handle conveniently, but not sticky. Turn out on floured board and knead until soft and elastic. Place in a greased bowl, cover and let rise until it is double the original bulk; then punch down. Let rise again and, after punching down once more, divide into pieces which will half-fill baking pans. Bake in hot oven of 400 to 425 degrees for 35 to 60 minutes depending on size of loaves.

Send 50c (money order or stamps) and we will send you a copy of the Purity Cook Book containing 742 tested recipes.

The engagement is announced of Muriel, only daughter of Mr. James Roberts of Victoria, and the late Mrs. Roberts, to Mr. Thomas McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McBride of Vancouver. The wedding will take place on Saturday, December 2, at the home of Mrs. G. Crossley, 1666 West Eleventh Avenue, Vancouver.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Howard Farant of Toronto, who has been visiting with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Roberts, Oak Bay Avenue, went to Vancouver yesterday to meet her husband, and will return with him on Monday for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Campbell, Ryan Street, have as their guest for a week Mrs. C. H. Dennis of Vancouver. In honor of Mrs. Dennis, Mrs. L. Gorman entertained at the tea hour yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McLaren, Linden Avenue.

In honor of Miss Eleanor Ann Kissing, whose marriage to Mr. Charles Hamilton Bell will take place this week, Mrs. Henry Delmas entertained at her home, 640 Hillside Avenue, yesterday evening with a miscellaneous shower. The gifts were concealed in a wishing well and presented to the honored guest by little Miss Joan Delmas. On their arrival, the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Kissing, were presented with corsage bouquets of pink and white carnations. Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table centred with pink and white chrysanthemums, which was presided over by Mrs. J. D. Kissing and Mrs. F. C. Bell. The invited guests included: Miss Kissing, Mrs. J. D. Kissing, Mrs. F. C. Bell, Mrs. J. Crossley, Mrs. B. Webb, Mrs. H. Ganid, Mrs. B. Colwell, Mrs. L. Kissing, Mrs. J. Girardeau, Mrs. H. Yeaton, Mrs. H. McAllister, Mrs. W. Champion, Mrs. H. Delmas, Mrs. J. Christie, Mrs. A. McKibbin and the Misses Amelia Bantly, Anna Perudi, Evelyn, Frances and Eunice Bell, Agnes, Mary and Margaret Grant, Nellie Cannon, Florence and Peggy Davis, Helen Carlin, Eileen O'Neill, Janet Kissing, K. Mackenzie, Rita Thompson and Mary Morry.

A card party will be held in St. Martin's Hall, Obed Avenue, Friday, in aid of the 1st Tillamook Scouts. Court prizes will be played, with good prizes, and refreshments served.

The Margaret Irvine Mission Circle of St. Aidan's Y.W.M.S. held a successful supper and thankoffering meeting at the home of Miss Barbara Dawson Friday evening. Miss Cleo Westrum expressed the Circle's thanks to Mrs. Dawson for her hospitality. Many donations for "The Gift Box" at the bazaar were received. It was decided to conduct a salted-peanut stall, a couple of members undertaking to do this work. The evening closed by repeating the Mizpah benediction.

Esquimalt Women's Institute met Tuesday evening in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Mrs. E. Pocock presided. General business was dealt with. Among many letters of thanks received was one from the Solarium thanking the W.I. for 100 pounds sugar and announced that Isobel Blackford, one of the institute's adopted children, would be discharged very soon, and suggested another little girl to take her place. It was agreed to adopt Edyth Soderman and a gift of $5 be sent to Isobel Blackford on her leaving. Reports were received from delegates to conference and on the bazaar held recently, which had been most successful. Two card games were held during the month, and this evening 500 will be played. Arrangements were made for the usual turkey drive on December 14. A nice collection of jam for Solarium was received from members and friends. Red Cross work was discussed and several members are willing to knit or sew. Members are requested to meet next Wednesday at Ormand's Biscuit Factory at 2.30 to be shown over the plant.

QUADRA P.T.A. The Quadra P.T.A. met on Tuesday evening. The president, Mrs. A. J. Stevenson, welcomed the new members. Mrs. Miles, convener, reported a membership of 120.

Reports were given on the recent Halloween bonfire and the Halloween Fun Fest, which netted a sum of $50. On school activities, Mr. G. H. E. Green announced that Miss Gilliland's class was putting on a Junior Red Cross program this afternoon. Tomorrow evening, November 18, some pictures will be shown in the school auditorium. The school is preparing a Christmas concert. It was decided to have the annual reunion dance in February.

An interesting illustrated lecture on proper lighting in schools was given by officials of the B. C. Electric Co.

Trustee F. C. Mulliner moved a vote of thanks. A social hour with refreshments was held.

Budget Debate Pushed Ahead

The budget debate pushed ahead through two sittings of the Legislature yesterday and was entered the arena only for brief references. There were six speakers, all back benchers, during the day, and this left time for the House to move several pieces of routine legislation through various stages.

While there will be no night sitting of the House tonight, party whips saw good prospects of the budget debate ending by the week-end.

E. T. Kenney, Liberal, Skeena, warned C.C.F. speakers to distinguish between licence and liberty in their speeches on the war. He said the only interpretation that could be placed on the remarks of Mrs. D. G. Steeves was that she wanted to see the Empire dissolve. But she need not be taken seriously because the Empire would remain strong and firm long after she had gone.

He spoke of the need for organizing British Columbia's agriculture for war purposes and for putting vacant land in shape for settlement, because, he said, if the war lasted a long time land would be the only thing worth-while when it was over.

He urged more help for prospectors through the assay office and concluded with an appeal to cabinet ministers to visit the north more frequently.

"Why there's some children up there who don't know what a cabinet-minister looks like," he said.

J. A. Paton, Conservative, Point Grey, predicted millions of refugees would come to Canada after the war's end and said it would require not only careful planning of land for settlement but probably a revamping of the country's entire railway and transport policy.

E. E. WINCH

Charges that some patients in the Essondale Mental Hospital were unjustly committed over the signatures of doctors and justices of the peace were made by E. E. Winch, C.C.F. Burnaby. Dr. G. M. Weir, provincial secretary said his department dealt with two such complaints a week, but on investigation found 99 and nine-tenths were unfounded. As soon as patients entered the institution they were given a thorough examination by the medical staff.

Mr. Winch told of a case where a man was committed over the signature of a peace justice who never saw him.

"There must be the greatest protection for these patients," Mr. Winch said. "We cannot realize the stigma attached to a person who has been committed to a mental home—I know that is the fault of society, but there is that stigma."

He recommended that before a person was committed to Essondale he or she be given observation for 30 days.

Mr. Winch said Essondale was inadequately staffed, as far as the number of medical men were concerned. He said there were only eight doctors there when there should be 20. Rate of pay for these medical men was too low, also he said.

"Have you studied also the fees for the legal profession?" asked R. L. Maitland, K.C., leader of the Opposition.

"Yes, I have and of all the damnable impositions on the people of this province," flared back Mr. Winch.

The Burnaby member asked Dr. Weir if the salaries were sufficient to entice good medical men to stay. Dr. Weir replied he could get quite competent young graduates for the staff.

"If they were any good they wouldn't stay, at the price we're paying them," Mr. Winch said.

Dr. Weir objected to this statement, saying it cast reflections on some very fine men.

Mr. Winch said he did not wish to do this and added the medical staff wouldn't stay if it didn't have ideals higher than the salaries it received.

M. M. CONNELLY

Value of the Manson Creek Road in opening up new mineral areas was stressed by Mark M. Connelly, Liberal, Omineca. Recoveries this year were much beyond expectations.

He said from the end of the Manson Creek Road there remained only 85 miles to build to complete the Peace River outlet. "And when we get that built and the Alaska Highway completed we'll be sitting on top of the world," he said.

He also urged the government to adopt a vigorous land settlement policy, declaring it was cheaper to help a man build a farm than to keep him on relief in the city.

C. H. TUPPER

C. H. Tupper, Liberal, Similkameen, advocated the government, if it is successful in cutting the price of gasoline, taking the difference by an increased gasoline tax and applying it to permanent road work.

The province, he argued, was sadly in need of a fixed yearly capital expenditure on road improvements, and once the public was satisfied the money was really going into roads, would not object to a higher gas tax.

"Up in our country we pay a bad road tax, through the wear and tear on our cars, that people don't pay in the cities," he said. "Every mile of hard-surfaced road reduces the bad road tax so it would be good business."

He said that since Okanagan roads from the border have been surfaced, the tourist cars entering at Osoyoos have trebled in number.

Legion Asks Aid

Aid for unemployed war veterans and assistance for men who have drifted to Vancouver looking for work or seeking to enlist was asked by the Provincial Command, Canadian Legion, in interviews yesterday with Premier Pattullo, Hon. G. S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, and Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary.

Robert Macnicol, executive secretary, Capt. R. B. Longridge, T. M. Harnett and J. A. Law-Beattie composed the provincial executive delegation which was promised full consideration for their claims.

The delegates pointed out that unemployed veterans should be fully cared for by the federal government, but explained that Ottawa had refused to do this and the legion had no option but to ask the province to help them.

Veterans were living in Vancouver in a state of semi-destitution on $3.05 a week, the delegates said. It cost them $1.75 a week for sleeping accommodation, leaving them only $1.30 a week for food and other necessities.

As a solution to the problem of other young men who have drifted to Vancouver for enlistment or to find work and have not found it, the legion suggested the government return them to the places from which they came instead of leaving them hungry in Vancouver.

The deputation urged that the provincial government give immediate consideration to the matter of providing public works for the unemployed who could not obtain employment at the present time, or as an alternative to increase the relief allowances whereby the men concerned may be able to live in passable decency.

They discussed certain regulations contained in the present act governing payment of mothers' pensions. They strongly recommended that where a recipient of mother's pension had the opportunity of making payments on a small home with her rental allowance, she should not be debarred from action of this kind, nor should any deduction be made from the rental allowance because of the fact that the recipient is able under exceptionally favorable conditions to purchase a place to live.

Another matter dealt with referred to the stoppage of payment of mother's pension when members of the family reached the age of 16. It was pointed out that under conditions as they exist today a mother and her family should not be thrown on their own resources until the family have had a reasonable opportunity of completing their education. It was suggested that where the children concerned are continuing their education, mother's pension should be paid until they reach the age of 19.

The delegation strongly endorsed any action that the B.C. government might take at the present session of the Legislature to relieve men serving in the military, navy or air forces of Canada of financial obligations that they are unable to meet owing to enlistment in the forces and subsequent reduction in income.

Hunter Predicts C.C.F. Defeat

"The British Empire will go on forever and Canada will continue to be an integral part of that Empire," said Dr. J. D. Hunter, Conservative, Victoria, speaking in the budget debate in the Legislature last night.

Replying to Mrs. D. G. Steeves, C.C.F., North Vancouver, the third member for Victoria said he hoped the word empire would never disappear from the vocabulary.

"When the next election rolls around I think the people of British Columbia will not forget these things and will send the C.C.F. party into the limbo of forgotten things," he said. He thought the leader of the C.C.F. party in the House would find at that time that the people of this province would have nothing to do with the sentiments expressed by his party.

"Then what are you worrying about?" interjected E. E. Winch, C.C.F., Burnaby.

TAUNTS AND SNEERS

The speech of Mrs. Steeves, he said, was the worst fusillade of taunts and sneers at the British Empire he had ever heard in his life. The speech of Colin Cameron, C.C.F., Comox, he classified as a diatribe directly against Canada's participation in the war. He said he did not think the Comox member's views were shared by many of his constituents.

"His talk about cannon fodder was nothing but disgraceful," Dr. Hunter said.

The Victoria member said there was too much government in Canada. He felt there should be only five provincial governments, dividing the country provincially into British Columbia, the Prairies, the Maritimes, Ontario and Quebec. The present B.C. government, he said, was hanging its hat on the report of the Rowell Commission—he felt that commission's report would not cure all the financial ills from which Canada was suffering.

Dr. Hunter urged the provincial secretary consider some scheme of hospital insurance—that it would be cheaper in the long run than the 70 cents a day the government contributes to all hospital patients.

"I feel those who have very little of this world's goods are entitled to and should receive the same hospital and medical treatment as those persons of wealth," he said.

Victoria City, Dr. Hunter said, should be compensated for the large amount of government property now free from taxation. The government was continuing to buy much city property, with the resultant loss in taxes to the city.

He regretted the budget had shown no hope of assistance to the municipalities, many of which, he said, were in dire financial straits.

CHARGES INDICATED ON FRUIT INQUIRY

The provincial government declined to table in the Legislature yesterday, correspondence which led up to the Okanagan fruit combine charges investigation after Attorney-General Wismer had announced it was likely criminal prosecutions will be undertaken in the light of what the Macgregor report showed.

The Attorney-General declared not all the charges made in the first place by Godfrey Isaacs, Oyama grower, and mentioned subsequently in letters between the Ottawa and Victoria governments had been proved and to make all the correspondence public now might prejudice the case for those who likely would be charged.

R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative leader, had asked for the correspondence, declaring there had been an unseemly delay in pressing the investigation and bringing down the report.

Mr. Wismer refuted this suggestion and said investigation of the Isaacs charges had been initiated as quickly as possible and the widest possible inquiry carried out by F. A. Macgregor, Dominion combines officer.

"But," he said, "as long as I am Attorney-General I'll uphold the principle that a man is entitled to a fair trial. Production of the correspondence in this House would make it public and we might have such a spectacle of a trial beforehand in the newspapers as they sometimes have in the United States."

Mr. Wismer said some apparently decent citizens were mentioned in the correspondence and since all the charges made had not been substantiated, making them public would make the trials unfair.

Winch Apologizes— But Not to Anscomb

E. E. Winch, C.C.F. member for Burnaby, apologized in the legislature last night because he called Herbert Anscomb, Victoria, Conservative, an old woman in the House on Monday.

But his apology was not to Mr. Anscomb, he explained, but to the fair sex at large. After hearing the remarks Mr. Anscomb made about Mrs. D. G. Steeves, of North Vancouver, he realized it was a libel on the female sex to call Mr. Anscomb an old woman. No woman would have made such remarks.

He said Mr. Anscomb was a Rip Van Winkle who had been politically dead for 40 years and never had a new idea since he was born.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS PROBE LIMITED

The public accounts committee of the Legislature will not be permitted to go into past history and must confine itself to accounts of the last year.

This ruling was made by the House yesterday when on a straight party division 28-15, R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative leader, was refused permission to have the committee examine accounts prior to April 1, 1938.

He protested that sometimes the committee was rushed and did not have time to study all current accounts during one session. At other times matters suddenly came up for investigation that applied to previous years.

Premier Pattullo maintained, however, that the committee could not go on repeatedly examining past accounts, although he said the government would not object to giving any member details of any specific matter he might want. Conservatives forced a division on the resolution, however.

Reviews Vancouver Labor Activity

Activities of labor organizations in Vancouver were reviewed by E. Jameson, president of the Vancouver Trades and Labor Council, when he attended the meeting of the Victoria council last night.

Mr. Jameson, with J. Ross, chairman of the provincial executive and J. Pollock, also from the mainland, is in the city to discuss with the provincial government this morning matters affecting labor in the province. Edwin Fox, local president, and E. Belton, secretary, will accompany the delegates.

The work of the Community Chest was heartily endorsed by the council and representatives were named to assist in the drive for funds.

An organization meeting for workers engaged in the shipbuilding industry will be held November 29.

LONDON—The armies of the Allies and Germany remain deadlocked in west Flanders today along the battle line, where the snow is ankle deep, with the prospects of further intermittent artillery duels and infantry clashes, which for more than a month have been swinging back and forth without definite results.

LONDON—Premier Asquith stated today in the House of Commons that the war already was costing Great Britain from $4,500,000 to $5,000,000 daily.

MOSBY'S TONIC SPLENDID SAYS VANCOUVER CITIZEN RHEUMATIC PAIN RELIEVED

Mr. Robert Horner of East 60th Street Had Such Violent Pains He Couldn't Sleep—Stomach Sour and Gassy—He now Says: "My Suffering is Relieved. Mosby's Tonic Deserves Anybody's Praise."

MR. ROBERT HORNER, a resident of Vancouver 22 years, who says: "Mosby's Tonic was what I needed. It is the finest thing of the kind I ever heard of. I gladly endorse it."

Day after day, crowds continue to flock to The Cunningham Drug Store, Fort and Douglas Streets, where this New, Scientific Formula, known as MOSBY'S TONIC, is being introduced and explained to the public of this city and vicinity.

This Splendid Mixture of Roots and Herbs and Other Proven Medicinal Agents has already helped THOUSANDS (this is literally true) in this city, although it has been known here only a short time. And some of the best-known residents of Victoria and vicinity are coming forward daily with Sincere Statements, describing what Mosby's Tonic did for them and urging others who suffer in the same way to get this New Compound and take it. For instance, just a few days ago, Mr. Robert Horner of 2155 East 60th St. Vancouver, B.C., made the following statement. Mr. Horner has been a resident here 22 years. He is acquainted with hundreds of local people and we are PROUD to publish his statement below:

Rheumatic Pains Kept Him Awake Nights

"If anybody in this world ever had what you call REAL rheumatic pains, then I know I am that very person, for I suffered so badly at times that I could hardly endure it," said Mr. Horner. "These rheumatic pains were so violent at times that my feet and legs just seemed to be on fire. At nights I would lie in bed and suffer for hours. I couldn't touch one foot to the other, and even the bed clothing felt heavy on my legs. Sometimes when I got up in the mornings I could hardly straighten up to walk. The pains felt like they were ALL OVER ME. I believe most of this rheumatic trouble was caused by impurities in my system, due to constipation. My bowels were almost always constipated and I couldn't find anything to regulate them properly. My stomach was so sour and gassy that I had to be very careful what I ate. Also had sharp pains from gas bloating and was very weak and run-down as a result of all this suffering.

Now He Is Relieved; Says "It Is Splendid!"

"Recently I heard about Mosby's Tonic and got it and started taking it, and now I am here to say that this is the most Splendid Thing I ever found. The very first bottle helped me. Now the swelling in my right leg is gone, and it has given me such splendid relief from those rheumatic pains that I can move my legs freely now, in fact, I feel like I never had a rheumatic pain in my life. Another thing, this medicine relieved my sour, gassy stomach and now I can eat anything without suffering from gas pains like I used to. It is the first thing in years that ever regulated my bowels as they should be. You don't know how fine it is to get all of this excellent relief. I am simply delighted with Mosby's Tonic and gladly give this statement because I want to help others get the same relief that I got."

Acts on Bowels, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys

MOSBY'S TONIC accomplishes several things within the human body at the same time. That is because it contains 20 ingredients, including 15 Roots and Herbs. It cleanses the bowels and clears gas and bloat from stomach. It enlivens the liver, cleans old bile from system and relieves biliousness and sick headache. It invigorates the kidney action, thus stopping backache. Weak, worn-out people soon feel like different men and women.

Only Costs Few Cents a Day to Take It

Another thing—due to the immense volume which it sells, the price of Mosby's Tonic is reasonable. You can actually take this New Formula with its many Herbs and Other Splendid ingredients, for just a few cents per day. So don't hesitate. Get Mosby's Tonic—NOW—and start taking it. (Adv.)

Happy Valley

Mrs. H. Baxter, "Deerfoot Lodge," loaned her home for the November meeting of the Lutton and Happy Valley Institute on Tuesday evening, Mrs. W. Henderson presided. The conference report was read by the secretary, Mrs. Stuart Hutchinson. Contributors were appointed to receive donations of jam for the Queen Alexandra Solarium. The president asked support for the purchase of a radio for the school.

Pipers Protest Ban On Kilts

The recent official announcement "that there is no room for the kilt in Canadian overseas forces" will be the principal subject of discussion at a social of the Vancouver Island Pipers' Society to be held in the Britannia Branch of the Canadian Legion, Saturday evening at 8.

Officials of the society argue that the past and present defence ministers had been reported as stating that the kilt will always be worn by Canadian Scottish battalions and British highland regiments of the British expeditionary force in France were still wearing the kilt.

The musical portion of the social will be under the direction of Captain Macgregor Macintosh.

Langford

A progressive bridge party was held in aid of the funds of the Queen Alexandra Solarium in the Women's Institute Hall on Tuesday. Miss L. M. A. Savory won the prize for the highest score, while Mrs. B. Alexander and Mrs. M. J. MacDonald were awarded consolation prizes.

R. C. Nimmo presided at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting. Mrs. A. F. Bayles reported on the local council P.T.A. meeting. Mrs. W. A. Goodman accepted the convener'ship of the social committee and Mrs. Eric Merry was elected to the committee. Mrs. J. Fidler, membership convener, reported that 50 members had joined the association. Mrs. P. N. Welch spoke on the advantage of forming a child study group.

A social hour was enjoyed, which included a musical story told by Mr. Nimmo with Mrs. Nimmo at the piano.

Mrs. V. T. Franklin won a prize for the highest score in games, and Mrs. M. Pimlott the consolation.

Will you help to build and equip the necessary Red Cross hospitals in France, the convalescent hospitals in England? Will you help to purchase the surgical and medical supplies so urgently needed? Will you assist in the great work of locating the missing, of keeping Canadian mothers advised about the progress of those in hospital?

This great work must be organized now. Funds for the Red Cross war effort and to carry on the great peacetime work of the Red Cross in Canada, are required immediately. Every dollar you give will help to care for someone who is far from home. Your contribution may save a life—a hundred lives. Was there ever such an opportunity to contribute to such a noble cause? Give with a willing heart. Give to the utmost—now.

Land Settlement Policy Advocated

The adoption of a new land settlement policy by British Columbia with the two-fold objective of helping British Columbians on to suitable lands and encouraging British immigration for an assisted settlement scheme was urged on Premier Pattullo yesterday by a delegation of six Liberal members.

Quiz Contest Is Won By House

In the first quiz contest of the year House 4 won its first victory in inter-house activities by taking the contest by the slim margin of two points over House 2. Twelve hundred students packed the auditorium to see the battle of wits between the various houses.

Ray Whitehouse, master of ceremonies, gave the standings of the various houses to date and introduced the contestants and the umpire, H. L. Smith, principal of the school, who introduced Jim Kearney as Professor Quiz.

The contestants wrote answers to the questions and these were marked by the boy and girl captains of the houses. It was House 4 from the start, but House 2 staged a brilliant rally and made it pretty hot for the winners towards the end.

The various contestants and the points they scored were as follows:
House 1, Nancy Asseltine and Bill Clarke, 69 points.
House 2, Betty Kirby and Edmond Jorre de St. Jorre, 77 points.
House 3, Barbara Moresby and George Le Bus, 63 points.
House 4, Joan Sampson and Tom Treherne, 79 points.

effect that inadequate pensions should be increased in accordance with the present living conditions.

CASE AGAINST VIVISECTION

The case against vivisection was presented to a large audience on Tuesday night at the Y.W.C.A. by G. B. Kitto. Mr. Kitto quoted the most eminent scientific, medical and lay minds in support of his statement that vivisection was unethical and unscientific. The views of the Pasteurian and Bio-chemical schools of thought were discussed, neither agreeing as to the cause of disease. Stress was laid on the value of mental healing, and Sweden was quoted as an example of a country which has achieved health without resort to the prevailing methods of immunization.

George Read condemned vivisection and asserted the belief that deliberately planned torture was contributory to the unhappy state of the world today. He is making a bird sanctuary on a property near Victoria.

W. B. Pease pleaded for the exercise of compassion as of more value than mere pity, being active. An English visitor referred to the poster displays in Great Britain giving information that inoculation and vaccination are not compulsory in the army.

LACK OF WORK IS DISAPPOINTMENT

The Tuberculous Veterans' Branch of the Canadian Legion held a well-attended meeting in the association rooms Tuesday and several matters of interest received attention, more especially the question of low pensions and lack of opportunity to supplement same by means of suitable employment.

Disappointment was expressed over the fact that none of the membership had been placed in any form of employment since registration began in connection with the national survey scheme. Also that no action had yet been reported regarding the recommendation submitted by Canadian Legion headquarters to the

J. LOVE, DRUGGIST, DIES AT HEDLEY

A pioneer among druggists of British Columbia, John Love, passed away last Saturday at Hedley, B.C. He died from a heart attack, having suffered with heart trouble for several years.

He was born in Stanton, Dufferin County, Ontario, in 1874, and as a lad went to Manitoba. He came to British Columbia in the late nineties. Mr. Love was in charge of a drug store in Chilliwack 42 years ago and since that time opened drug stores in Fairview, Camp McKinney, Hedley, Vancouver, Phoenix, and Rollo and Dawson Creek in the Peace River district. He first opened his Hedley store in 1905 and in 1935 returned to that city to reopen the store he had occupied three decades before.

Deceased is survived by his widow, and by a stepdaughter, Zeeta, both residing at Hedley; also by four sisters, Mrs. John Maxwell of Winnipeg, Mrs. S. L. Taylor of London, Mrs. R. J. Wallace and Miss Edith Love, Toronto; and three brothers, Stuart of Toronto, Hector of Winnipeg, and T. A. Love of Grand Forks.

effect that inadequate pensions should be increased in accordance with the present living conditions.

The meeting suggested that inquiries should be made regarding the delay in the hearing of pension claims by the traveling commission, which was expected last September.

It was pointed out that all outstanding problems resulting from war conditions will most likely be left in abeyance until the deliberations of the Canadian Legion Dominion convention during May, 1940, and that this will include resolutions adopted by the 1939 B.C. provincial conference.

Persons, male or female, will be registered whether they are employed or not at the time of registration.

"We are also anxious to receive applications from persons employed in the manufacture of munitions during the last war or since that time," Mr. Stone said.

October Land Sales Higher

Property sales in Victoria during October were higher than they have been since April, 1937, figures released today by the city assessor-collector's department disclosed.

In addition to leading the last 30 months in aggregate values, the number of purchases exceeded any on record since October, 1930.

During the last month 76 parcels were sold for $186,363, against 30 for $137,750 in September and 62 for $117,989 in October last year. An explanation of the increases was not forthcoming, although it was thought the sales showed a return to real estate as a stable investment in a world where money markets are influenced by war conditions.

In addition to sales, $5,995 worth of property changed hands through transfers, and another $36,684 through wills, raising the total for the month to $281,042.

Boosted by the transactions last month the total land sales for Victoria during the first 10 months of the year amount to $1,111,234, and aggregate changes in ownership for the same period to $2,412,692.

To Be Enlisted

William G. Stone, superintendent of the local branch of the Employment Service of Canada at Broughton and Langley Streets, announced today that registration will commence immediately of skilled and semi-skilled persons who will be available for work on war orders.

"The service wishes it to be made clear that the registration is not for military nor enlistment purposes, but only for civil employment," Mr. Stone said.

The following occupations will be included in the registration: Blacksmiths, body builders, boiler makers, buffers and polishers, cabinet makers, carpenters, chemists, coremakers, die makers and die sinkers, draughtsmen, drill press operators, electricians, engineers, heavy timber framers, lathe hands, machinists, motor mechanics, millwrights, moulders, pattern makers, plumbers and pipe fitters, punch press operators, riveters and chippers, sheet metal workers, shipwrights, steel sharpeners, structural steel and iron workers, tailors and cutters, tinsmiths, toolmakers and welders and cutters (metal).

If possible, applicants will appear in person at the employment office here or at Nanaimo, covering Vancouver Island. If applicants are unable to appear in person, those south of Victoria will communicate with the Victoria office, and those of Lady-smith and north, with the Nanaimo office. Forms will be mailed to the applicants.

Persons, male or female, will be registered whether they are employed or not at the time of registration.

"We are also anxious to receive applications from persons employed in the manufacture of munitions during the last war or since that time," Mr. Stone said.

Kaiser Accused of Munich Bombing, Members of Family Reported Shot

EARTHQUAKE DAMAGE—Although Pacific Northwest residents felt effects of an earthquake that lasted 40 seconds, the tremor left virtually no damage in its wake. One of the few evidences of its effect in Seattle was this bookshelf in the law library of the city-county building, where the shelving was jarred a foot out of line.

BRITISH MECHANIZED UNITS HAVE WORK OUT—Taking full advantage of the quiet spell on the western front, British forces behind the Maginot Line carry out extensive training manoeuvres designed to keep the army on its toes, ready to spring into action once the warfare opens up. Fully equipped with Bren gun carriers the British forces are shown at exercises over the rough country behind the lines.

Nazis now blame the Munich beer cellar bombing on the former Kaiser, above, who is said to have directed the plot from his exile in Doorn. Prince Louis Ferdinand of Prussia, at far right with his bride, the Grand Duchess of Kira, is also suspected. Almost a dozen aristocrats are reported to have been shot without trial since the bombing.

SEES HIS AIR FORCE—Watching a flight of fighter airplanes during a recent visit to a Royal Air Force station is King George, who apparently is following the manoeuvres with intense interest.

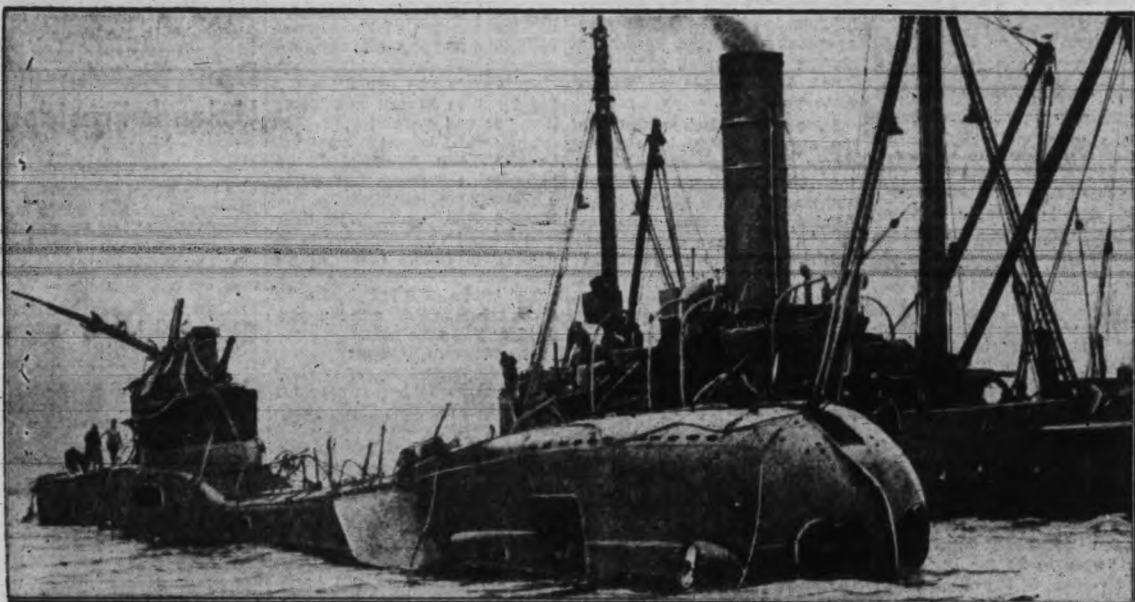

Former Crown Prince Wilhelm of Germany, shown here, working on his automobile, is under house arrest at his Potsdam Palace following the alleged discovery of a monarchist plot against Hitler. When Prince Wilhelm protested that 22 Hohenzollerns were in the army and one had died in action, Hitler is reported to have asked a personal report on the "plot" from Count von Wedel, police president of Potsdam. This report was unsatisfactory, according to a report, and three days later Count von Wedel was dead.

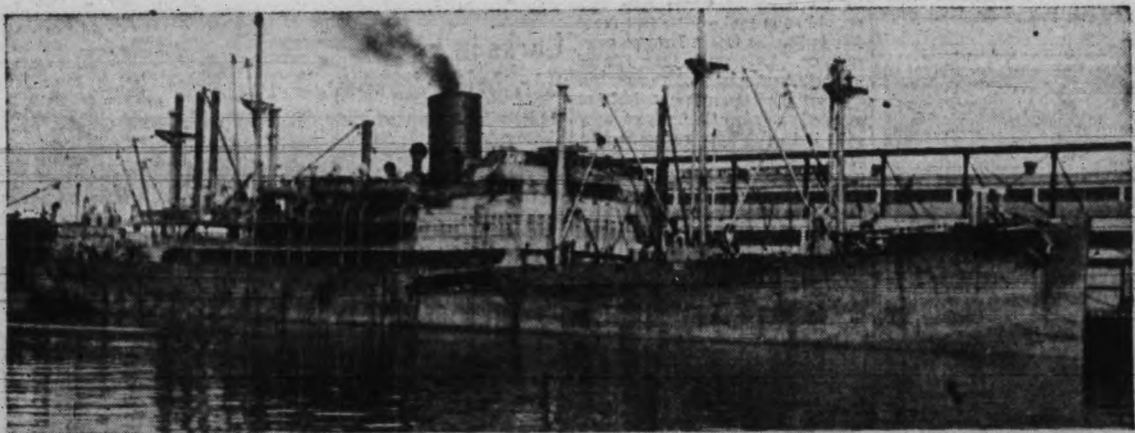

All members of the Hohenzollern family are suspected of complicity in the Munich bomb plot against Hitler's life, in connection with which five princes and nine generals are said to have been arrested. Prince Frederick Wilhelm (above left) is reported to have been shot without trial as Nazis struck swiftly to avenge the bombing. Prince Joachim Albrecht of Prussia (right above), was said to have died "unexpectedly" the day after Hitler ordered his Gestapo to search the homes of all members of the former ruling family.

OFFERS SIX FARMS, SIX MEN—Because "Hitler has disrupted my plans," Brevet-Major Murray Elliott of Aylesford, N.S., has offered six farms to the Canadian government for use during the war. At the same time, he dedicated himself and his five sons to the service of their country. Shown here are the five boys: Back row, John and Sinclair; middle row, Rufus and Mac, already accepted by the army; in front, Matthew. An officer in the last war, his father is ready to serve this time in any capacity.

SUNKEN THETIS RAISED BY SALVAGE EFFORTS—Incessant efforts by salvage ships since she sank during a practice dive June 1 have finally succeeded in raising H.M. submarine Thetis from the floor of Liverpool Bay. In the picture, the Thetis, seen wholly above the waterline for the first time in four and a half months, is being escorted into Wlrofe Bay, Wales, where she was beached. Authorities said no more bodies would be taken from her until she was taken to Holyhead. Spurred by the sound of faint tappings on the hull, divers worked frantically during the first few days after she sank in an effort to rescue 99 men aboard. Four men escaped in "bubbles" while several died in the attempt. Nineteen bodies were removed by divers. The Thetis was raised several times, but each time sank again when cables snapped.

THEIR LOAD, AIRPLANES—THEIR DESTINATION, EUROPEAN WARFIELDS—With crated airplanes ready for shipment to Europe, Los Angeles harbor presents a busy scene these days. Above, the Southern Prince stands by ready for her load of deadly warplanes. Below, the Damsterdyk, loading completed, with its shipment of Douglas bombers. Both will be escorted by Allied naval vessels. (Acme telephoto).

HIS EXCELLENCY BOWS—Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada, is seen here with head bowed just after he had laid a wreath at the base of the Cenotaph on Parliament Hill in Ottawa, leading the nation's Remembrance Day Observance.

TO FORM CZECH LEGION—First steps in the formation of a Czechoslovakian legion in Canada have been taken with the arrival of Col. Oldrich Spaniel of the general staff of the Czech army, who escaped from Czechoslovakia ahead of the German secret police.

POLAND REBUILDS—UNDER NAZIS' EYES—Life must go on—even after a war—and these pictures, released by Nazi censor, show how Poles are beating back to normal—under German supervision. Top, left, a helmeted German soldier keeps a watchful eye on the ticket-taker in a Posen railway station. At right, under German overseers, Polish prisoners rebuild a blasted road. At bottom, Posen factory women paint new signs for streets that now bear German names.

WHAT THE race tracks of North America need is another year like 1928 when more good three-year-olds were underfoot than one could shake a stick at—which is a passel of good three-year-olds. There have not been any years since that one when any three-year-old race, even in the fall, could bring out a starting gate full of top horses.

This year, for example, three good colts with championship aspirations dwindled to two after Eight Thirty was hurt, and then down to one after Johnstown was laid away for good with a whistle in his throat. That left Challeon, but Challeon was a good deal of horse to leave.

But if you will take a look at the Kentucky Derby chart of 1928, you will see a field. Incidentally, the 22 who went to the post that day made up the biggest field that America's No. 1 race has ever had.

Reigh Count led home Misstep and Toro that afternoon on a bad track. Of the 22 that went to the post no less than nine of them had won over $50,000 before they called it quits, most of them for a career in the stud.

Reigh Count may have been the big horse that day, but two of those he defeated went on to win more money than he did. First, there was Sun Beau, whose $376,744 makes him the No. 1 money-winning horse of all time. Sun Beau was an also-ran in that Derby. Then there was Misstep, who captured $182,815 before he stopped running and started siring a flock of other thoroughbreds with names beginning with M. Reigh Count, after a successful invasion of England, went back to John Hertz Leona Farms with $178,170 in his bank. To complete the list there were Toro, $142,530; Pete Wrack, $88,990; Vito, $82,330; Distraction, $67,760; Sortie, $65,509, and Blackwood, $54,244.

And, of course, not all the leading members of the Class of 1925 were present for the third, or Derby, Reunion in 1928. Notably absent was Victorian, who went on to win $253,425 before he was through. And there was My Dandy, his shadow, Brown Wisdom, two of the most popular horses ever to race in this country. My Dandy won $137,923 and Brown Wisdom $91,226.

Two other members of the crop passed the $100,000 mark in winnings. The good mare, Bateau, was one. She reached the $120,760 mark and only three members of her sex (Top Flight, Princess Doreen and Esposa) ever won more. And there was Diavolo, with $107,540, and since then, a fine career in the stud.

So far down the list that he hardly can hold his head up is Balko, $71,580. But the Sagamore Stud sprinter is still remembered as one of the fleetest horses the United States has produced and he still holds track records here and there.

There were others: Easter Stoking, $85,310; Gentle, $84,190; Pigeon Hole, $82,508; Solace, $77,354; Glade, $76,785; Sun Edwin, $69,495, and still more who won their share. And every one of them was born in 1925 and came to the races in the same crop. Maybe it was sunspots.

Regina Grid Star Joins Navy Here

REGINA (CP)—The Rough-riding rugby team lost a backfielder and the Royal Canadian Naval volunteer reserve gained an ordnance artificer this week. D. H. (Bert) Nelson, former Winnipeg resident who for several years has been a member of the Winnipeg backfield, left Monday for the Pacific Coast. He has rank of acting petty officer.

BOSTON — Ben Shalom, 250, Palestine, defeated Mayes McLain, 220, in straight falls.

Victoria migratory bird hunters are looking forward to some grand shooting when they flock to the tide flats, sloughs, pot holes and wide fields bright and early Saturday morning to open their war on the duck and geese tribes.

Pre-season surveys of the most popular hunting areas on the lower island show the duck population on hand at the present time is the best seen for a season's opening in several years.

Cowichan Bay and Chemalun Bay tide flats are reported to have good showings of ducks, and these centres are expected to draw the main portion of the lower island's gun-toting army. Some will go to the foreshores to bag a few salt-water ducks; others will invade the big fields that should have good ponds on them now, and still others will seek their first duck dinners in the swamp areas.

LOTS OF WIDGEON ARRIVING

Reports from Roger Monteith and other sportsmen tell that teal have arrived early this year, and that there are quite a number of mallard around. During the last 10 days, reports continue, lots of widgeon have arrived at the lower island hunting grounds.

From Campbell River country comes word that logging operations in that district have left swamps exposed; they are attracting lots of water fowl.

Pintail are another member of the duck family, that are found on the lower island in fairly good numbers, and the odd shoveller, gadwall and canvasback are bagged in this district. Elder ducks are not legal game birds, but some of the boys figure the season is opening too late for good bags of this bird.

The Canada goose, also known as the honker, and the hutchings, known as the cackling goose or lesser Canada goose, are the two members of the geese flocks that are legal targets for island sportsmen, and which migrate south via the island in good numbers. Snow geese and brant shooting seasons come in later.

According to Gonzales Hill officials the sun will rise Saturday at 7:25. As the regulations call for no shooting until one hour before sunrise, that means the first barrages on the flocks winging their way overhead will crash out at 6:25. Shooting must stop one hour after sunset. Sunset will be at 4:32 on the opening day.

McConnell Leads Tookes to Victory

VANCOUVER (CP)—George McConnell staged a one-man show in the last quarter of an Intercollegiate basketball game here last night to score 12 points and give Tookes a 31 to 27 win over University of British Columbia Thunderbirds.

McConnell, who played two years ago with Winnipeg St. Andrews, fairly peppered the Varsity basket with shots all night and rang up a total of 19 points—the high of the evening.

Tookes trailed right into the last quarter. They were behind 11 to 3 at the end of the first period, 19 to 12 at the half and 23 to 16 at the close of the third frame.

Pat Flynn of Varsity was high scorer for his team with seven points.

Basketballers Gather Tonight

Tonight in a room at the Y.M.C.A., starting at 7:30, Victoria's basketball leaders will get together to discuss the present complicated local situation at a special general meeting of the Victoria and District League. The session is not open to the public, and in addition to the league officers those present will include one delegate from each club in the loop.

The meeting was called at the request of three teams, Dominions, Wimpy's Crescents and Adverts. Reason for the meeting was dissatisfaction over reports on negotiations between the league executive and the Victoria Sports Centre Limited over the use of the latter's gym at the Willows. The entire situation will no doubt be dealt to tonight, and definite decision, one way or the other, reached.

Mert Gordon, Vancouver, president of the British Columbia Basketball Association, is a visitor to the city on private business, and it is possible he will attend.

PHILADELPHIA — Wally Sears, 180, Minersville, Pa., outpointed Del Paoli, 175, Philadelphia (6).

Ringer Claimed By Racing Heads

BALTIMORE (AP)—Officials of the Maryland Jockey Club said yesterday they had evidence the horse Smoke Signal had been run as George C. at Detroit on June 10, 1938, and as Laddie Boy Ring at Washington Park on August 2, 1938.

They said they had notified governing bodies in Illinois and Michigan of their findings, since the horse ran under its proper name in Maryland, and no action here was required.

The announcement followed an investigation started Friday when betting was held up prior to the seventh race at Pimlico pending identification of Smoke Signal. The horse, which ran second in the race, since has been under guard.

The officials released a statement by Frank Hastings, a trainer, quoting him as saying he had claimed the horse out of a race at Belmont Park in May, 1938, at request of Tom Malone, a trainer ruled off the turf by the Maryland Racing Commission following a ringer case at Pimlico in May, 1938.

Hastings said he claimed the horse for $3,500, which had been given him by Malone, together with $200 for doing it.

The New York Jockey Club instructed Hastings to appear before the New York stewards Monday to discuss the case.

UPLANDS WOMEN WIN GOLF MATCH

PRO INDOOR BALL LEAGUE TO OPEN

CINCINNATI (AP)—The new National Professional Indoor Baseball League, which begins play next week, was described today as "frankly an experiment" with an eye to a possible new source of big league hard ball players.

President Tris Speaker and Eugene Hargrave, manager of the Cincinnati club, agreed that while a hard ball player can't go to indoor ball, an indoor ball player can go the other way.

(The sponsors frowned severely upon the use of "softball" to describe their indoor game.)

William O. Mashburn, head of the Cincinnati club, outlined a program whereby each team would develop farm clubs of its own as well as seek local talent. The league also includes New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Brooklyn, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis.

End of New Zealand Imports Bars Urged

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP-Reuters)—The conference of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of New Zealand today passed a resolution urging the abandonment of control of imports on the grounds the scheme is irksome and complicated.

The resolution proposes, that each importer should be allocated every six months the sterling to which he is entitled. Importers would be free to import within their sterling allowance, subject to ordinary tariff control and prohibition of certain lines of goods, says the resolution.

ROYAL OAK

Royal Oak Community Hall was decorated with baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and greenery for the harvest supper held Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Royal Oak Women's Institute. Over 90 guests were welcomed by the president, Miss K. Oldfield. The tables were artistically decorated with fruits and chrysanthemums in crystal vases by Mrs. L. H. MacQueen and Mrs. A. P. Hobbs. E. C. Bingham showed reels of moving pictures, followed by a sing-song led by F. Coriss with W. H. Haley playing the accompaniments.

Conn Looks Good

NEW YORK (CP)—Billy Conn, light-heavyweight champion, was called a "boer's boxer" yesterday as he completed training for the 15-round defence of his title tomorrow night against Gus Lesnevich of Cliffside, N.J., in Madison Square Garden.

The appraisal came from Frank Erne, old-time lightweight champion, who watched Conn's drill. "I saw him in training here for his first fight with Mello Bettina and he's improved 100 per cent," said Erne. "In co-ordination, footwork, timing, snap to punches, Conn is better. He's nice to watch and he's still improving."

Conn sparred against Charley Fisher, Henry Cooper and Mickey McAvoy and exhibited a left hook to the jaw which probably will be his chief weapon against Lesnevich. The champion weighed 173½ pounds when the drill ended and was confident he would retain his title.

GALENTI TALKS

ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—Tony Galento finally has spoken in an effort to clear the air of rumors about his injured eye.

Confronted as he drove up to his home yesterday, the pudgy heavyweight boxer denied various reports he underwent an eye operation and said a hemorrhage that occurred in his right eye after the Lou Nova fight cleared up and no operation was necessary.

Duff Cooper Defends Versailles Treaty

DECATUR, Ga. (AP)—The Versailles Treaty, in the opinion of Alfred Duff Cooper, former First Lord of the British Admiralty, was the "noblest treaty to which statesmen of the world have ever set their hands."

Speaking at Agnes Scott College last night he said it was a good treaty, created by "right-thinking, upstanding and honest statesmen."

Duff Cooper resigned from the British government last year because he disagreed with Neville Chamberlain's policy of appeasement at Munich.

He praised the Versailles document as representing a "genuine effort to promote liberty, self-determination and the settlement of disputes by arbitration—the end of war."

"It was the first treaty in history," he added, "which attempted these things. The reparations clauses were a grave mistake, but the League of Nations idea which was embodied in the treaty was the first step in the right direction. That the League failed is the great tragedy of modern times."

Pretty Near, Though LEXINGTON, Ky. — When St. Germans, now one of America's leading stallions, finished second for his owner, Lord Astor, in the 1924 Epsom Derby, it marked the 52nd in seven years in the race for his owner, who never has been able to win the classic.

The Red Cross objective for British Columbia in the present campaign is $300,000 or 10 per cent of the national total.

Oklahoma Fans Really Serious

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Anyone still so naive as to regard college football in the United States as a sport and not a disease needs only to attend one of the weekly sessions of the Downtown Quarterback's Club of this city to learn his error.

There are minor imitations in other cities, but this one is the papa of them all. There were 750 members at the latest meeting, probably a third of them women, and they went at their quarterbacking seriously for three solid hours, starting at the unholy hour of 10:30 in the morning.

The club, originated by sports editor Bus Ham of the Daily Oklahoman, was so modest at first that the charter members met in a restaurant to discuss the gridiron situation. Now it has been thrown open to the general public in one of the city's swankiest ballrooms, and if the membership continues to grow they will have to move into a ball park.

FOOTBALL NUTS

With no pretense whatsoever, the quarterbacks are football nuts, and the University of Oklahoma the object of their whole affection. Each week they put coach Tom Stidham squarely on the spot, and some of the questions he answers are a caution. Nor does he attempt to sidestep.

In return for taking the quarterbacks into his confidence, Stidham is given some important co-operation in the matter of getting and keeping good Oklahoma football players at the state university.

Here's how. Each week one of the state's leading high school teams is the honored guest of the club. The boys are well fed, and then they are told, in kindly fashion, that some Oklahoma players who have attended college in their own state have found it easier to obtain jobs after leaving school than others who went off to wicked foreign institutions.

Victoria United Idle This Week

Victoria United footballers, leaders in the Pacific Coast League, will have a rest this week and will devote the whole of next week to practice sessions to prepare themselves for their next intercity battle against St. Salvours here on November 25, Dr. Arthur Poyntz, manager, reported today.

The local redshirts are starting to hit a better stride now and should soon make their full force felt in Pacific Coast League competition. Last week they turned in their best game of the season against Radials, present holders of the Dominion title, whom they beat 2 to 0. This rocketed Victoria into the lead, one point ahead of North Shore United.

Manager Poyntz reports that team work in the front rank is getting better each start and by November 25 promises to turn out a smoother-working aggregation to collide with the Saints. The Salvours suffered a 4 to 2 beating at the hands of the United in the local team's first start of the season.

On December 2 Victoria United will travel to the mainland to go up against the North Shore eleven, second-place squad.

CHESS TOURNEY

Shore Will Turn Out For Champs

The National Hockey League race is off to a jammed start and every playing night for a while the leadership may change.

Tonight, for instance, either Montreal Canadiens or Chicago Black Hawks or both can leap ahead of Toronto Maple Leafs and Detroit Red Wings into first place. Then either the Leafs or the Red Wings can step ahead again when they meet Saturday night at Toronto.

That's in sharp contrast to last season, when Chicago took a brief lead and then Boston stepped in front to stay there until the schedule's finish.

The Canadiens meet the aurored Boston club tonight at Montreal, where the Habitués have won both their first two games of the season. The Canadiens, who took longer than any other team to get going last fall, are the only unbeaten and united team in the league now.

The Bruins, with Eddie Shore back on the defence, got up on their hind legs at home Tuesday night and slapped down the Black Hawks in overtime. Once started, they are apt to keep going, and particularly against a lighter contingent like the Canadiens.

Two members of Boston's world champions of 1938-39 will oppose them, Ray Getliffe was sold to the Canadiens at the end of last season, and Charlie Sands came to Montreal this fall in a trade for Herbie Cain.

The Black Hawks will seek the heights at New York in a meeting with the speedy Rangers. To all intents and purposes, though, it looks like a night for the Ranger sharpshooters to improve their scoring marks against Mike Karakas, whose 10 goals-against mark is the heaviest total of any goaltender in the league.

Doug Fletcher Is Uplands President

Doug Fletcher was elected president of the Uplands Golf Club at a meeting of the directors held last night. A. C. Lindsay is vice-president. Vic Painter was named captain with L. J. ## Labor Solid In War Support

A new phase was injected into the war debate in the Legislature today when the B.C. executive of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada interviewed the government and pledged unwavering support to the Canadian and British governments in the prosecution of the war against aggressor nations.

In a special resolution, the labor men declared they had always supported the labor men of Britain and France in their stand opposing attack and destruction and dictatorship powers, and had assured them that when the need came, Canadian labor would rise to their defense.

In all Fascist and Nazi nations the free trade union movement had been outlawed and its leaders persecuted and sometimes murdered, the resolution said. Thousands of its members were in Nazi concentration camps.

AGAINST PROFITEERING

They urged that in prosecuting the war Canada eliminate profiteering and greed in producing its war goods, and mobilize the machinery and wealth of the nation so that the sacrifice of men and capital would be equitable.

The congress was 100% behind this stand on the war, said the delegation which consisted of J. N. Ross, chairman, H. Pearson, E. A. Jamieson, E. Fox and Percy R. Bengough, vice-president of the national organization.

The delegates also submitted requests for provincial legislation sought by the labor congress. They asked collective bargaining rights for all trades unions instead of those that were established prior to December 7, 1938, as now specified in the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act. They also asked for a prohibition against injunctions being granted in industrial disputes until all parties had been heard.

Other points advocated by the labor men included: More public works to provide jobs for the unemployed, with a system of unemployment insurance; reduction in the old age pension limit from 70 to 60 years with an increase in the pension rate to $30 a month; immediate operation of health insurance; legislation providing holidays with pay for all workers; abolition of the present chauffeur's license system, and widening of the Workmen's Compensation Act. They also requested the employment of one man for each projection machine in movie theatres as protection for the public.

MEET NEXT WEEK

The special committee appointed by Mayor Andrew McGavin last week to consider results of disconnecting groundings on electrical services in the city will meet next week, Alderman T. W. Hawkins, chairman, announced today.

The committee, which includes Alderman B. J. Gadsden, the city solicitor, city engineer, city electrician, will seek to establish responsibility for inspection of pole lines and the distribution system in Victoria and will study certain technical questions raised on safety by Alderman Gadsden.

A report will be presented to the council the following week.

Committee Rejects Election Deposits

Deposits by candidates in provincial elections will not be revived, it was decided at the first meeting of a special committee of the Legislature appointed to revise the election machinery.

All members of the committee were against the proposal, although several thought some means should be found to stop cranks and others who had no chance standing for office.

In federal elections candidates must deposit $200, which they lose if they do not get half as many votes as the winning candidate. Settlement of this point was one of several matters of principle determined by the committee before it went into a detailed study of the new act drafted by George M. Phillips and a committee of election officials.

Harold Winch, C.C.F. leader, said he realized that some method was needed of stopping candidates running for a joke, but claimed a deposit might also stop a really worthwhile candidate. He suggested candidates be required to get more than the names of 10 supporters, as is now the case.

"I know of one case in Burnaby last election where a man only got 8 votes out of the 10 who signed his papers," he said. "My understanding is he ran to advertise his hot dog stand."

R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative leader, said the checking of names on candidates' papers was a nuisance, and he would cut the number down.

W. T. Straith, Liberal, Victoria, said it was ridiculous to let large numbers of candidates run that did not have a chance. He did not favor a deposit, but thought there should be some means of reducing the field to those who had a chance so that the elected candidate could not be opened to the criticism of being elected on a minority vote.

The committee decided not to change the present absentee voting system, which Mr. Maitland said had been instituted after a nasty mess in North Vancouver, and now had the confidence of the public.

It was decided to keep the present system of registering voters by elections commissions instead of putting in a system of voters making simple declarations. Reinstatement of voters will be allowed by application on a small request card instead of the present method of affidavits. Transfers of voters from one riding to another will be simplified and it was decided that new registrations will become valid immediately instead of being posted for 30 days. Courts of revision will be held quarterly instead of monthly.

The committee left only one question undecided, whether or not to cancel out the voters' lists before each general election and make up a new one with enumerators. There was a 5 to 5 vote on this point and it will be dealt with later.

Cost of compiling a new list each election would be in the neighborhood of $100,000, it was estimated. Several members described the enumeration system as a racket but agreed that some means must be found of getting as many people as possible registered.

P. Howard Forester said that in Vancouver some people were on the lists in two or three adjoining ridings and only a complete registration each time would correct this.

In the discussion on whether voters should be registered by affidavit, Harold Winch pressed for retention of the present method declaring that in Quebec there was a machine that would guarantee to deliver 2,000 votes to any party, by the telegraph system.

TOWN TOPICS

Theft of between $75 and $100 worth of bronze bushings from the Marine Iron Works, Pembroke Street, was reported to city police yesterday.

Bank clearings in the city for the week ending today were $1,649,461, according to a statement from the Victoria clearing house. Figures for the same period last year were $1,452,750.

R. E. Chalmers was elected president of Ward Four, Saanich Ratepayers' Association at the annual meeting. John Warnock was elected vice-president and Maurice Allison secretary-treasurer.

Rev. T. W. MacArthur of Pennsylvania, former associate of the late Dr. A. B. Simpson, founder of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, will speak at an open meeting in the Alliance Tabernacle tonight at 8.

Reports have been received at Red Cross headquarters that unauthorized persons are again soliciting funds for Red Cross. The committee desires to state that no person, except the officially recognized canvassers for the Community Chest and Red Cross, have any authority at this time to solicit cash donations.

When Sir Ernest MacMillan was in Victoria last October he asked Mrs. Wilfrid Ord, principal of the Victoria School of Expression, if she would care to undertake the elocution department of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. A decision has not yet been reached, but Mrs. Ord would very much regret having to sever her connection with Victoria, where she has been teaching for the last 15 years.

A bright program of variety numbers was given at a concert for the outside staff of the City Hall, held at the K. of P. Hall, S. Osborne presided and contributed to the program were: Songs, Stan-Honeychurch; musical selections, guitar, Jimmy Perri; accordion, Andre De Girolano and Albert Denoni; songs, George Ede, Joe Ramsay, Sam Osborne and Dick Jackson. F. Merryfield, Cornish Wizard, magical creations.

Mr. Douglas High School P.T.A. met in the school auditorium on Tuesday evening. Following a report by the president on the money spent on sports equipment, the meeting discussed methods to be used in marking the students' reports and decided on the use of numerical marking. The president also reported that the school board had provided 45 more chairs for use in the auditorium. Miss J. McLenaghan, director of home economics for the province, spoke on the growth of the study of this subject in British Columbia, it having almost doubled in the last 13 years, and deplored the lack of facilities for training teachers in this subject in this province. Mrs. G. Ingledew thanked the speaker. The meeting adjourned with the serving of refreshments.

Education for Farm War Effort

By co-operation and education, but not by compulsion, British Columbia was seeking to mobilize its farm industry in support of the war, the agricultural committee of the Legislature was told today by experts of the Department of Agriculture.

A drastic proposal, by which farmers would be compelled to produce swine and sheep in such places as the Fraser Valley, was advanced by George Murray, Liberal, of Lilloet, but Dr. W. R. Gunn, livestock commissioner, said he thought the desired result could be achieved best by persuasion.

British Columbia's weakness in an agricultural sense, the committee learned, is a shortage of swine, sheep and beef. The most serious shortage is in swine and said Dr. Gunn, it is almost impossible to pick up a load of pigs today. But more and more farmers in the Fraser Valley are turning from straight milk production and the struggle to enter the fluid market in Vancouver, and are developing into other lines like hogs and sheep.

To educate them in such production, where British Columbia depends now on imports is a settled policy with the Department of Agriculture, Dr. Gunn explained, and is being intensified now for war purposes, since Canada will need more and more of these products for itself and its Allies.

New Companies

New B.C. companies registered this week are as follows:

Hong Bros. Ltd. $10,000, Vancouver.

Advance Tire (1939) Ltd., $10,000, Vancouver.

United Fuel and Cartage Ltd., $10,000, Vancouver.

Two Convicted Of Bootlegging

Ben Pruss, manager, and Robert Welton, clerk, were convicted in the City Police Court this morning on a charge of selling beer in the St. James Hotel. They were remanded until tomorrow for sentence.

The court tomorrow will hear argument from J. B. Clearhugh, K.C., who contends that the minimum penalty of $300 fine or three months, should be imposed jointly against the two rather than against each which would make a $600 fine.

Anthony Creet, co-manager, jointly charged with Pruss and Welton was dismissed when the court heard there was no evidence implicating him.

Final defence evidence, rebuttal and argument were heard this morning when Creet was called to the stand and testified he knew nothing of the sale of beer to Stanley Reid in the hotel on the morning of October 31, which was the subject of the charge. He said when he followed Welton on duty he found the cash correct in accordance with the books.

Robert Campbell, taxi driver, was called by the prosecution to rebut testimony of Welton's that he had not seen the woman Reid with leave the hotel in the early morning. Campbell recalled he picked the woman up at 4.41 and while he had discussed the fare with Welton she had been standing with them.

Mr. Clearhugh argued there was not sufficient evidence of sale and the charge the three accused had only been laid after charges had been preferred by the St. James Hotel against Reid for fraudulently obtaining lodgings. (Reid was subsequently acquitted on this count.)

C. L. Harrison, prosecutor, agreed there was little evidence against Creet but contended Welton's evidence was "false testimony, sometimes known as perjury." He agreed also the evidence of Reid should be carefully studied in view of the fact the charge had followed one against Reid but he pointed out there was corroboration from the woman who accompanied Reid and the rebuttal of the taxi driver had proved Welton swore falsely on the stand. Welton, he claimed, had attempted to mislead the court and his testimony might have been believed had it not been for the evidence of the taxi driver.

In passing judgment, Magistrate Hall held the woman's evidence was corroborated by Reid's story which was further borne out by testimony of the taxi driver. When Welton gave evidence to the contrary the court said he was deliberately lying and therefore none of his evidence could be accepted. The magistrate was satisfied Pruss had authorized the sale of the beer when Welton had telephoned him and was therefore guilty.

TENDERS ASKED FOR ESQUIMALT SEAWALL

Tenders are being invited by the Dominion government for the construction of a seawall, dredging, rubble mound and fill work at Pilgrim's Cove, Esquimalt, to close at the Department of Public Works at Ottawa, December 5.

The scheme calls for the dredging of a channel 30 feet wide to a depth of about four feet and the supply and driving of 213 creosoted fish-bearing piles. The contract will also include the placing of a rubble mound approximately 108 feet long and placing of a concrete set wall 169 feet long on a reinforced concrete base. The whole of the area to the rear of the sea wall will be filled to the elevation of the top of the wall. The work comprises the following: Dredging about 1,100 cubic yards; 100 cubic yards of rock excavation; 800 cubic yards of rubble mound fill; 6,000 cubic yards of earth fill and about 2,500 pounds of reinforcing steel.

Urges Normal Buying During Wartime

"We hope there will be no war boom, for if there is a war depression is bound to follow—we hope only for steady business," said H. E. Leveson-Gower of Vancouver, of the staff of Canadian Business, published by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, who was in Victoria today on business.

"We advocate normal buying by the average person in these times," he said. "If a person is receiving his or her usual income, there is no reason why more money than usual should be put into savings accounts—such a plan has a very bad psychological effect on everyone."

This morning Mr. Leveson-Gower visited members of the provincial government and discussed Canadian business with them.

Funeral chapel to St. John's Church at 3.30 Saturday.

Soldiers' Life Different Now

"Soldiering today is vastly different from the soldiering of the last war. Officers treat their men with respect and kindness and leave them to do a job at the freedom of their own will," said Lieutenant-Colonel H. E. Goodman, officer commanding the Army Field Workshop at Victoria, to members of the Rotary Club at the Empress Hotel today.

Lieutenant-Colonel Goodman related many of the outstanding experiences of his career before and during the Great War. The speaker praised the men he now commands and emphasized the importance of their job, the repairing of mechanical and other equipment of a whole battalion.

In referring to the present war, Lieutenant-Colonel Goodman said there had been no secrets kept from the public and from the rest of the world, and they had been able to distinguish right from wrong.

"The spirit of the Princess Patricia companies which left here on Tuesday, is the spirit of the army. They have a job to do and expect to do it well. Their enthusiasm in the singing of 'The Beer Barrel Polka' as they embarked makes us feel that this song will go down in history," said the speaker.

Walter Luney, president of the club, was in the chair, and thanked the speaker for his address.

Legislature

The House will not sit tonight. The budget debate resumes tomorrow at 2.30.

The provincial police have collected $104,571 in the $1 fees from motorists who have taken driving tests. Attorney-General Wismer replied to questions.

Maximum working hours, minimum wages and general regulation of working conditions for nurses in British Columbia hospitals are sought by E. E. Winch, C.C.F., Burnaby, in a resolution filed today. He based his argument for this regulation on a report of a special advisory committee on labor conditions in hospitals just filed in the House. The report found that nurses claim they work intolerably long hours, and most hospital authorities agree they should be shortened. An 8-hour day, 6-day week, with minimum pay of $40 for two weeks was recommended.

Art Ross-Jones Jr. and O. Corbett will be the speakers at a public lecture to be held by Technocracy Inc. tonight in the Pemberton Building.

Alderman to Seek Return

Alderman B. J. Gadsden led the parade of five sitting aldermen who will seek re-election at the forthcoming civic polls today with a definite announcement he would again stand for office on the City Council.

Sometime before 2 o'clock December 7 announcements will be forthcoming from Mayor Andrew McGavin and Aldermen W. H. Davies, R. A. C. Dewar, S. H. O'Neill and Ed Williams.

"I feel it is my duty to allow my name to go before the electors once more," Alderman Gadsden said today.

Other members whose two-year terms expire this year will probably seek re-election. On that basis a contest is assured, with Joe North reportedly a definite entry in the ring and former alderman Alex Peden expected to seek return to the civic lists.

School Trustee W. P. Marchant, mentioned variously as an aldermanic or mayoral possibility, was enigmatic when questioned today.

"You may say," he stated, "that I am giving consideration to the question of whether or not I can continue in public service and in what capacity."

Potential council candidates were seen again this year in Mrs. Alice McGregor and John Day, although definite announcements have not yet been made by either. Annual pre-election reports that sitting aldermen are considering quitting the general circle to contest the mayoralty against Mayor McGavin were not beyond the realms of possibility.

Alderman Gadsden, the one definite entry in the general lists, this year held the chairmanship of the intermunicipal committee and was one-man market committee. He also sits on the Aged Men's Home and Aged Ladies' Home, the health, lands and zoning and salaries and wages committees and is one of the city's representatives on the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau.

The first proof of the voters' list was posted yesterday at the City Hall. On Monday the court of revision, under the chairmanship of Mayor McGavin, will sit in the Council Chamber at 10 to consider alterations. The proofs will then be returned to the printers and copies of the revised lists will be available to the public about November 27.

Nominations will be filed from noon to 2 on December 7 and the elections will be held on December 14 from 9 in the morning until 7 in the evening, in the City Market Building.

FEDERAL ELECTION IN MAY PREDICTED

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. R. J. Manion, national Conservative leader, when he forecast in Winnipeg today, a general election next May or June, voiced the opinion generally held among observers in Ottawa.

It has been generally accepted that but for the circumstances leading to the outbreak of war in September, a general election would have been held this fall.

"Unless war developments bring about a situation not now foreseen it is believed here a general election will be held as soon as convenient after Parliament prorogues. Opening of Parliament is expected early in January, probably January 11."

Dr. Manion, conducting a western tour, conferred with prominent Manitoba Conservatives in Winnipeg today. "I do not expect to make any speeches," he said.

'WITH US'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Delegates to the American Automobile Association's convention applauded today a statement by D. Leo Dolan of Ottawa that "in your heart of hearts you are with Canada and the Empire to win this war."

Dolan, director of the Canadian Travel Bureau and president of the Inter-American Travel Congress, said: "We have a great opportunity to unite the people who live in the western hemisphere that they may prepare to carry on a civilization which you and I enjoy and which we hope to see brought to a wider recognition in a sore and troubled world."

Runs Down Salmon

NANAIMO, B.C. (CP)—Latest island report, according to Al Rowland, freight truck driver, is running salmon down by truck.

Rowland, while traveling between Port Alberni and Nanaimo, ran over two salmon which had been swept up by flood waters and left stranded on the highway west of here.

CONTRASTS LINES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Quebec's Cardinal Villeneuve told members of the National Press Club here today that "the happy relations which exist between the United States and Canada are a great lesson to Europe."

"No Maginot or Siegfried Lines separate us, but an unforgotten border of over 3,000 miles," he said. "Let us be grateful to God for such friendly feelings and let us hope that they may ever continue."

Discussing overthrow of Premier Duplessis the Cardinal said: "The vote is not to be interpreted as a ballot cast for imperialism. It was not a vote for Great Britain and France. It was a vote for Canadian unity."

About rumors of an effort to establish a separatist Quebec state with the Catholic Church the dominant influence, the Cardinal said: "There is not a shadow of truth in the rumors."

GANDHI SPEAKS

LONDON (CP)—The News Chronicle today published a message from Mohandas K. Gandhi, in which the Nationalist leader declared "the main issue is 'does Britain intend to recognize India as an independent nation of must India remain Britain's dependency?'"

The message added that it was "no wonder Hitler has challenged the British government to prove her sincerity by recognizing India as a nation."

"Whatever may be his intention in issuing the challenge it cannot be denied that it is pertinent."

"Anyway let the British public know that the Congress (Indian Nationalist Party) demand is unequivocal and capable of being satisfied if there is a will to shed imperialism."

ALBERTA DEBT CUT

Latest Figures Show Britain's Big Naval Lead Over Germany

LONDON (CP) — Graphic figures showing Britain's overwhelming superiority in numbers of the German navy were published today in the latest issue of Jane's Fighting Ships, authoritative naval annual.

Only in torpedo boats and submarines is Germany given an edge, while Britain dominates other classifications. A comparative table follows showing the class of vessel and the number possessed by, first, Britain and, second, Germany:

Capital ships 15, including 2 under reconstruction; 5 aircraft carriers 6; none. Heavy cruisers 15; 2. Other cruisers 43, including 2 under reconstruction; 6. Anti-aircraft ships 6, including 2 under reconstruction; none. Destroyers 179; 22. Submarines 57; 65. Torpedo boat none; 12. Motor torpedo boats 26; 30. Britain's determination to maintain this advantage is shown by a construction program including nine battleships, five cruisers and six aircraft carriers against Germany's four battleships, four heavy cruisers and two aircraft carriers.

Heavy programs of construction by France, Britain and the United States are reported while scant information on new naval building is available from Russia and Japan.

Jane's says four British ships of the Lion class now under construction are believed to be designed for a displacement of between 40,000 and 45,000 tons. Two of them, the Lion and the Temeraire, will be completed in 1943, the other two in 1944. They will be armed with 16-inch guns.

Five 35,000-ton battleships of the King George V class will be completed within the next two years. They will be armed with 14-inch guns. Six aircraft carriers under construction have a displacement of 23,000 tons and carry 16 4.5-inch dual purpose guns.

PLAN RELEASE OF INTERNED CARGOES

LONDON (CP) — Cargoes consigned to Great Britain valued between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000 ($13,350,000 and $22,250,000) are held up in the holds of 140 German ships which have taken refuge in neutral ports.

The London Chamber of Commerce is negotiating for release of the cargoes, but so far without success. The Germans are demanding anywhere from 10 to 35 per cent of the value of the cargoes, in addition to full freight charges to British ports, before they will surrender the goods.

Most of the cargoes are already paid for. The German demand is said to cover the costs involved in the release of the goods. The chamber is advising owners to pay freights and up to 2 per cent of the value of the cargoes to meet these charges.

"We have not taken action in neutral ports," the chamber said. "That will depend on the reply we get from the Germans."

LOWER WAR RISK ON PACIFIC OCEAN

LONDON (CP) — New rates of 10 shillings per cent were fixed by the government war risk insurance office yesterday for voyages across the United States Atlantic coast via Panama to Japan, the Philippines, China (including Hongkong, Dairen and Manchoukuo ports) and Hainan, in Indo-China, and from the U.S. Pacific coast to all Far Eastern ports.

The comparative market rates for these voyages are 20 shillings per cent for neutral vessels and 25 shillings per cent for British or Allied vessels.

Automobile Financing

WASHINGTON (AP) — A charge that "evils amounting to scandal exist in the financing of automobiles and automobile accessories" in the United States was presented today to the American Automobile Association, opening its 37th annual convention.

The committee on automobile financing recommended further study of financing methods with a view to obtaining corrective legislation.

The committee said the financing contracts "are one-sided legal instruments which give full protection to the seller and, practically none to the buyer."

Norwegian Salvage

HALIFAX (CP) — The salvage tug Foundation Franklin reached Halifax today with the help of Norwegian freighter Selje in tow after a nine-day battle with heavy seas and almost continuous gales.

The Selje, a 3,891-ton craft, dropped her propeller off Newfoundland November 5.

Seamen Cling to Side of U-Boat

BALTIMORE (AP) — A story of 12 British seamen clinging to the side of a German submarine in the hope it would not be forced to submerge was recounted today by Paul Gilbert, crewman of the American oil tanker R. G. Stewart.

Gilbert said the Stewart was en route to the United States from Le Havre when on September 11, about 200 miles off the French coast, it was stopped by the U-boat and the Stewart's captain was ordered to come aboard with his ship's papers.

Before he complied, a fog lifted and a British ship, the 9,456-ton Inverliffy, was sighted about one and a half miles away. The sub started in pursuit, and returned shortly with the British seamen clinging to the sides, and the Inverliffy ablaze.

"Somehow their lifeboat was swamped while they were being towed toward us by the sub," said Gilbert. "The men thrashed about in the water until the submarine officer told them to cling to the side of the U-boat. Then the submarine cruised over to us."

"After the rescue, they told us the Germans said that if a British destroyer or plane was sighted the submarine would have to submerge immediately and the men would have to swim for it."

The 12 and 23 others who escaped in two more lifeboats were placed aboard the American ship City of Joliet, bound for Europe.

Letters to the Editor

DEFENCE

To the Editor:—In his broadcast, Mr. Anthony Eden said: "That the hardest fight of this present war would be outside the trenches," at home not at the front. What did he mean?

Mr. Mackenzie King said: "We are fighting for Christianity and the decency against Atheism and immorality. A crusade, if ever there was one." It is a war against something supposedly hidden behind a Nazi shield. Hitler posed as the St. George of Europe to quell the dragon Communism. Now the dragon has more or less swallowed him and grins, because he now does as directed. On the surface, this dragon is very sociable and smooth, but incredibly powerful and sinister. What are we in Canada doing against strangulation by corruption?

Another fallacy seems to be: Oh! we are not fighting the German people, just Hitler. But to the German Nazi, Hitler is Christ and how many Germans are Nazis? In 1934, Hitler appointed Hanns Kurl special minister for church affairs. In September 1934, he was given power of church dictator. This dictator openly professes the anti-Christian philosophy of Rosenberg and it is authoritatively stated that Hitler is the Holy Ghost of Christianity. The following extract may be illuminating, from Nazi Nuggets: "God has manifested Himself not in Jesus Christ but in Adolf Hitler!"

Dr. Goebbels: "Hitler is lovely — so is God. Hitler is like God." Dr. Frank Reich, minister of justice: "Hitler is a new, a greater and more powerful Jesus Christ." The German people make a quiescent acceptance of this ideology. Communism acquires it as a buckler to shield their specious trickery of greed, hatred and the sapping of all known moral standards. A worldwide debauchment of the rights and liberties of the individual to be invested in the hands of a few human jackals. A phantasmagoria for the credulous and ignorant of a heaven on earth. Showman stuff! No arduous duties; little work; lots of pay; no morals; blindly trust brother fox. Poor sheep! Why become an international mongrel at the invitation of a foreign spider: "Will you walk into my parlor, said the spider to the fly." Like the radio announcer, I can't help saying: "What a world!"

The Defence of Canada League is the only association as far as I know, who have been specializing on this anti-subversive and corruption campaign against the British Empire and Canada. Will the public not help us in our great struggle. We need and welcome all who have our common peril at heart and can grasp its great significance — to those who have to "carry on" afterward. Are we to let down those at the front, or do our less spectacular but vital duty?

NEVILLE E. FAIRWEATHER, National President, Defence of Canada League.

MONTREAL — Bar gold in London was unchanged at $37.54 an ounce in the London market today.

The Bank of England's buying price, the fixed rate of exchange, was announced at $38.50 in London.

President McConachie announced that passenger carrying on the Fort St. John-Whitehorse Line of the company's routes was resumed on Wednesday, after being discontinued for more than a week due to the freeze-up period.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP) — Improved support from export interests brought a firmer tone to wheat futures prices on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. Quotations fluctuated evenly throughout the session and closed 1/2 to 1/4 cent higher, November and December at 70 1/2, May 75 1/2 and July 77 1/2.

Purchases by exporters in the pit were believed to have represented a foreign business of 500,000 bushels in Canadian wheat. Destination of the overseas sales could not be determined.

Forecasts of rains for the Kansas areas of the United States winter wheat belt discouraged any rally which might have been made at Chicago and prices held close to previous levels.

Cash wheat transactions uncovered export and mill support in top northern grades and a little milling interest in some of the gamuts.

Malsters buying barley, mill purchases of oats and purchases of Winnipeg rye against sales at Chicago supplied most of the action in the coarse grain pit.

CHICAGO (AP) — After selling off 1/2 to 1/4 cent in early dealings, wheat prices rallied to score net fractional gains today.

Reports of light rains in the southwest tended to check buying of July contracts. Wheat closed unchanged to 1/4 cent higher compared yesterday's finish. December 87 1/2 to 87 3/4, May 85 1/2 to 85 3/4, corn 50 1/2 to 50 3/4, oats unchanged to 1/4 higher.

Steels Lead Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — Buying signals were "ard in the stock market today and many recent laggards, led by steels, pushed up fractions to around two points. Transfers approximated 800,000 shares.

Among the day's principal share gainers were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Montgomery Ward, U.S. Rubber, Go-drich, Eastern Airlines, American Telephone, General Electric, Westinghouse, American Can, Union Carbide and Allied Chemical.

Coppers, oils and utilities shifted over a generally narrow range.

The list, hesitant at the start, soon began to pick up a following. Rails, motors, rubbers, merchandising, air transports and an assortment of specialties were taken in hand, at intervals and most finished at or near the day's tops, despite profit-taking in the final hour.

As in the past few weeks the market found scant stimulation in the war, but a little more attention apparently was paid to the steady flow of optimistic business and industrial developments at home.

Fears of labor disputes accompanying the climb of corporate earnings, and the possibility of the next congress boosting taxes, tended to restrain speculative temperaments, brokers said.

Power Shovels Save Men From Hard Labor

In the old days, many thousands of men were "ditch diggers." With picks and shovels they dug in the ground to make holes, or ditches, of one kind or another.

In this modern age, there still are men who earn their living by digging ditches, but not so many as in times gone by. The steam shovel does much of the work which used to be done by hand-labor.

Men inside a 16-ton scoop.

There are persons who say it is too bad when machines take away "jobs," but strong points can be given on the other side. Ditch-digging is hard work; some call it "back-breaking." Men with shovels are not paid much for their labor.

The steam shovel ranks as a labor-saving machine. It was invented in the past century, and was one of the gifts which came to the human race after men learned to master steam.

The steam shovel was the most important kind of power digger 20 years ago. Since then it has given way in large measure to shovels driven by electric motors. Gasoline and diesel-electric motors also are used today.

Digging machines now have the general name of "power shovels." There are places where they cannot be used with profit, but they are of great service when large amounts of soil or broken rock must be moved.

I have a book, written 20 years ago, which tells what a steam shovel would do at that time. The author showed that four men (an engineer, a fireman and two "pit-men") could shovel and load 500 cubic yards of soil in a day. That was 100 cubic yards more than 20 laborers could shovel and load in the same time.

The steam shovel of which the author spoke was a small one. It could scoop only three-fourths of a cubic yard at one time.

Many modern power shovels are of far greater size, and can scoop up many times as much dirt. One modern power shovel, driven by electric motors, has done a great deal of work in Illinois soft coal mines. It has a great arm or "boom" 90 feet long. There is a great dipper with a handle 60 feet long, and the cup part of the dipper holds 12 cubic yards. Another, even larger, power shovel has an arm 120 feet long. It can scoop up 15 cubic yards at a time.

HOROSCOPE

Friday, November 17

Good and evil planetary aspects seem to balance each other today. The morning has a distinctly adverse influence, but benefic stars rule later in the day. In the early hours persons in authority may be domineering. Mars is in a sinister way which threatens naval operations.

Women should be fortunate in the afternoon. Many young folk will indulge in hasty courtships, as reckless love matches multiply under war fears. This is an auspicious wedding day and a lucky date for social matters. Entertainments should be successful.

This is a favorable date for merchants and manufacturers, but the stock market may create sensational news. Money comes under sinister directions. Relief burdens continue, despite widespread employment of young and middle-aged persons. There may be a fuel shortage in the winter. The stars seem to frown upon political programs. Unexpected developments will interfere with well-laid plans.

Secret diplomacy will continue to make lightning changes in European alignments. Although statesmen have predicted a long drawn out war there may be an armistice before a real victory has been achieved by either side. The seers foretell frightful suffering before lasting peace is attained.

Persons whose birthdate is in the augury of a year of steady progress. Marriages among the young are foretold. Caution should be used in operating motorcars.

Children born on this day will be vigorous and animated. Subjects of Scorpio may be talented in music or other arts.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—My work and happiness are greatly affected, and for the worse, by my inability to keep out of love. Ever since I was 12 years old I have been in love. Just one case after another. Heretofore, while I was plunged into the deepest kind of despair as each of these affairs came to an end, I recovered from it by the simple expedient of transferring my affections to another girl. Now, however, I fear I am in love for keeps. I can't sleep, food tastes like sawdust, nothing has any interest for me. I can't account for it, as the girl has nothing in common with me. She is below me socially, educationally, all sorts of ways. Definitely she is not my ideal, but I don't know what to do about her because I don't know whether I will fall out of love with her and in love with the next girl I meet or not. Is there any hope for me? Or is my romanticism incurable?

R. A. C.

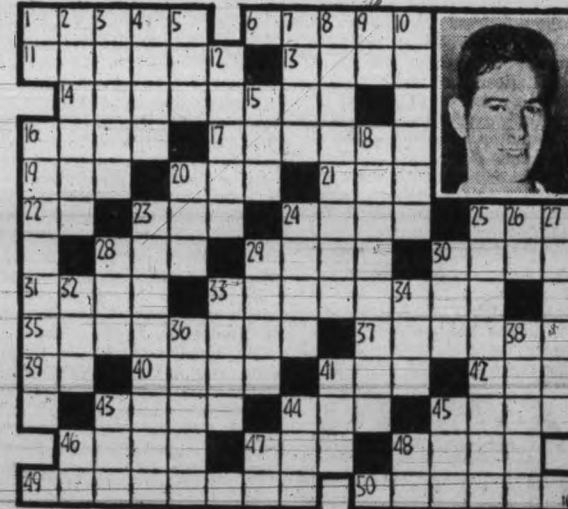

Answer: Evidently you are a born philanderer with an almost superhuman ability to spread your affections over the entire feminine sex. You will never be really in love with any particular woman or even prefer any particular type. It matters not to you whether a girl is pretty or homely, clever or dull, short or tall, fat or thin, blonde or brunette. All that she needs to be is new. A stranger. Someone you haven't seen before. It is the love chase you love, not the woman.

I don't believe that a philanderer can help philandering. He is just built that way. Unstable. Fickle. Variable as the wind. No woman on earth can ever bind or hold him. He is just as much bound to flit from girl to girl as the butterfly is from flower to flower. But in common humanity to women he should never marry.

For a philandering husband is a wife's crown of sorrow, because he is nearly always so attractive that she loves him in spite of knowing how little worth loving he is.

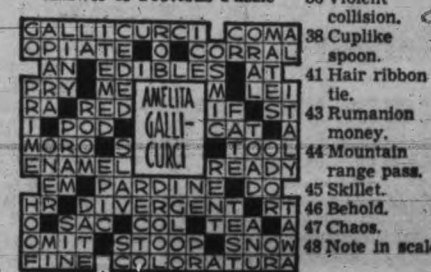

DOROTHY DIX.

Turkey Dinner In Big Hotel For Princess Pats

The Victoria homes of the Princess Pats settled down to routine today and awaited letters from soldiers who left Tuesday.

Some of the more thoughtful sent cards to their mothers and wives from Vancouver before they headed east for further training.

Today they are on a train somewhere on the prairies. Vancouver gave them as hearty a reception and farewell as Victoria. There were thousands on the streets to cheer them, and at the station more mothers and wives, sweethearts and sisters and brothers gathered to wish them Godspeed. Many of the men were from the lower mainland and so bid farewell to their families in Vancouver.

Seven big buses met the Pats in Vancouver and took them to the luxurious new Hotel Vancouver where the troops thronged the smart cafe and had a turkey dinner. Later the buses took them to the station.

They have been deluged with gifts and good wishes. Two portable radios and 3,000 cigarettes were presented to them by veterans' organizations of Victoria.

Today Work Point Barracks was strangely quiet without the hilarious, high-spirited "Pats," who had been encamped there since early in September. There are still a number of the regiment left, however, but recruiting is still suspended and there is no information when the government will call for new volunteers.

Utility Companies Fight Tax Plan

Vancouver's plan to increase its tax on poles, lines, and mains of public utility companies from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 per cent of the companies' gross revenues, was vigorously protested before the private bills committee of the Legislature yesterday by W. G. Murrin, president of the B.C. Electric Railway Company, and Major J. Hamilton, president of the B.C. Telephone Company.

They both claimed their companies paid the highest taxes of any utilities in Canada in their respective fields.

Mr. Murrin said the new tax would cost his company an extra $85,000 and argued the city certainly should not impose it at the present time because it would affect the company's ability to pay the higher war taxes to the federal government which needs them most.

Corporation Counsel D. E. McTaggart said the patriotic argument had nothing to do with the case.

Mr. Murrin, on one hand, and Mr. McTaggart and Alderman John Bennett, on the other, conducted a brisk argument as to the relative taxes paid by the B.C. Electric in relation to those paid by utility companies in other parts of the continent.

The committee also considered a Vancouver charter amendment which will bar members of parliament from being nominated for the Vancouver council.

Some members of the committee, including Mayor J. Lyle Telford of Vancouver, suggested the voters could best decide this question by not electing members of parliament to the council.

"You didn't oppose this at the council meeting," said Ald. Bennett. "Because I was the one hit at," replied the mayor.

Aids Red Cross

By G. J. D.

Anthony Williams, English tenor, in his recital at the Metropolitan Church yesterday evening, on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross, gave an interesting program. In this, especially devised and well balanced for the occasion—there is a certain aloofness in a church, where applause and repetition are not permissible—Mr. Williams contrived to overcome this in a great measure, with the result that throughout there was a personal and intimate atmosphere between recitalist and audience. All the more interesting was the fact that the organ was used, with Edward Parsons at the console.

Since his last appearance in the city, several years ago, Anthony Williams has been kind to his voice, and grown with his art. It has maintained much of its freshness and lustre, and has failed not in the art of sustained legato singing. When he chose to discard this smoothness, he did so because the character of text and musical setting demanded it. There were certain moments in his interpretation, which he imbued with considerable emotion, that could be overcome, but this is no occasion for "carping criticism."

In his 12 numbers we liked him best in Bach's "Jesu, Fount of Consolation," Rowley's "Be Strong," the two Handel arias, "Arioso" and "Ombra Mai Fu" (the famous Largo), Dvorak's "Turn Thee to Me" and Kirby's "The World's Need," in all of which were sincerity, substance and sonority.

Mr. Parsons played the choral song and fugue by Wesley, a choral prelude by Karg-Elert, Handel's overture to the "Occasional" oratorio, and Bach's choral prelude, "Blessed Jesus, Here We Stand."

From indications in the splendid turnout of musical people, Mr. Williams' effort will realize a handsome donation, as the entire proceeds are to be handed the Red Cross.

Quick Relief For Itching Piles

Just because you have been bothered, for years with sore, painful, itching piles, do not think you have to continue to suffer with this irritating, torturing discomfort. Because here is a simple, effective way to get relief and at NO RISK.

Ask your local druggist, Modern and Cunningham Drug Stores, for a package of Hem-Roid. Use it as directed and if you are not pleased with the quick and satisfying results you get, your druggist will return your money, no request.

A few days' use of Hem-Roid will relieve rectal spasm, ease pain, reduce inflammation, promote healing of the raw, sore membranes and give you a delightful freedom from this annoying and torturing discomfort. Many Canadian friends have written us of the really fine results they have had with Hem-Roid. It must be good because so many people like it and like what it does for them.

This leads us to offer, "your money back" if you are not entirely satisfied with the results you get. Make your test now and prove to yourself how good Hem-Roid really is.

Bankers Discuss Exchange Control

Foreign exchange control, which came into existence in Canada last September 16 as a war measure designed for the purpose of regulating and controlling foreign exchange and trade, is functioning smoothly, said Alex McD. McBain, adviser and chief of the intelligence division of the Canadian Foreign Exchange Control Board, Ottawa, said in an interview following his arrival in the city yesterday afternoon to confer with Victoria bankers.

He was accompanied by Douglas Dewar, supervisor for British Columbia, who has just installed his offices in the Bank of Canada at Vancouver.

Last night, at a dinner meeting at the Empress Hotel, members of the Victoria Clearing House, of which G. A. Campbell, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, is chairman, heard the two experts, who explain the policy of the board and problems of operation.

Exchange control is the logical and unavoidable defence measure of any nation at war, stressed Mr. McBain in the course of the interview.

BOARD'S OBJECTIVES

"The objectives of Canadian foreign exchange control," he said, "is to ensure that sufficient foreign exchange becomes available to pay for vital imports in connection with Canada's war efforts, and also to ensure that sufficient foreign exchange is made available to meet Canadian contractual obligations with particular reference to increases from investments which nonresidents have placed within Canada's borders."

Elaborating on the latter phase, Mr. McBain added: "The income from Canadian investments will continue to be paid in foreign exchange if they so wish, also the income from any new money which they wish to send here for investment purposes."

"I would say these investments," he continued, "are safer as the result of exchange control, and that nothing has happened to decrease the attractiveness of Canada as an investment field."

"Imports and exports of merchandise are moving across our borders without hindrance, except for the formality of obtaining an import and export license," he said in explaining the smooth functioning of control.

TOURISTS ARE WANTED

"Tourists will encounter no inconvenience whatever as a result of exchange control," said Mr. McBain, having in mind Victoria's important position as a tourist centre.

Commenting on his recent conferences with American bankers, Mr. McBain said they were taking control in the United States very well. There are no complaints or difficulties now. Prior to coming to Victoria he visited the larger centres in the United States, such as New York, Boston, Buffalo, Detroit and Chicago, and talked with bankers on foreign exchange matters.

Mr. Dewar, who for many years was associated with the New York firm of Peat, Marwick & Mitchell, had retired from active business with the intention of coming to British Columbia to make his home, when war broke out and, eager to do what he could offered his services to the Canadian government, without remuneration. The offer was promptly accepted by the government. Since going to Ottawa Mr. Dewar has been making a special study of the problems of exchange control.

"We are prepared to co-operate with all interests to facilitate business—not to retard it," said Mr. Dewar.

"Every precaution is being taken to see that normal business is not interfered with." The opening of the British Columbia office, he pointed out, was the solution of the problem of distance separating Ottawa from the coast.

The Canadian Foreign Exchange Control Board is composed of Graham F. Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada, chairman; Donald Gordon, deputy governor of the bank, vice-chairman; W. C. Clark, deputy minister of finance; H. D. Scully, commissioner of customs; L. D. Wilgore, of the Department of Trade and Commerce and N. A. Robertson, of the Department of External Affairs.

DUMBELLS AGAIN CHEER TROOPS—A slow, sentimental ballad and a rollicking bit of swing from Manhattan's tin-pan alley are catching on with the Canadian troops as the favorite songs of the new war. The tunes of the last war—the British Tommy's "Tipperary," and the French polka "Madelon," are not forgotten, but the young men of the new Canadian army concentrated at Ottawa say the songs they like best are the currently popular "South of the Border," and the boisterous "Beer Barrel Polka." And they showed it at the Canadian Legion shown at Ottawa when the Dumbells returned to entertain the boys in khaki again. The show was the first of a series which the Canadian Legion will sponsor for the troops in Canada and abroad. Red Newman (right) donned his tattered tunic and sang about the stage singing his "It's a Lovely War." "Marjorie," impersonated by Ross Hamilton (left) sang "her" songs and flirted with the boys in the first row.

Says $80,000 of $100,000 in View

"With $80,000 of our $100,000 objective in sight, we are assured that the Red Cross will receive a substantial contribution from the campaign," Frank Paulding, director of the Community Chest-Red Cross drive for funds, said today.

The Community Chest will receive the first $65,000 of the donations and the Red Cross the remaining $35,000 of the objective and anything over that amount.

"I am sure that the citizens realize the great and immediate need of funds by the Red Cross and with $80,000 in view, the more that is subscribed now, the more the Red Cross will receive," Mr. Paulding continued.

Figures released at the campaign headquarters, corner View and Government Streets, this morning at the start of the fourth day of the week's drive, gave subscriptions on hand at $53,492.08. Yesterday's pledges amounted to $10,567.21. The total amount of subscriptions up to last night was $4,339.48 over the amount subscribed during the same period in last year's campaign.

Of the $10,567.21 collected yesterday, the largest amount collected by a division was $5,485.76 by the residential division under the chairmanship of Miss S. Spencer with Mrs. W. P. D. Pemberton, vice-chairman. The division had collected $13,373.98 in all, which was $5,020.57 more than was collected last year by the division in the same time.

The central committee or "A" division, under G. H. Stevens' chairmanship, with J. L. Mara, vice-chairman, was second highest in yesterday's canvassing receiving pledges amounting to $4,146. The division had collected $35,089.50 to date. Last year during the same period, the division had collected $35,807.

At noon today Miss Lyna Mess, secretary of the Children's Aid Society, and Miss Alberta Creasor, superintendent of the V.O.N., spoke to employees of the British America Paint Company with regard to the campaign. The managing director of the company, J. C. Fendray, closed the plant for 15 minutes in order that the employees could hear Miss Mess and Miss Creasor.

PARIS — Bows flock to the front of a black tulle evening dress from Balenciaga. In glamorous colors of olive green, clove purple, raisin red and also in lighter shades they suggest birds newly alighted and soon to be gone.

lar artists will be seen and heard in the concert. Included in the program will be the Gizeh Temple Shrine Band, the Victoria Girls' drill team, the women's department, Provincial Recreation Association, the Russian Ballet School of Dancing, Miss Joy Merriman, ventriloquist, and "Torchy," and Frank Merryfield, "Victoria's Houdini." More will be added.

Frank Sehl will act as prolocutor and Mrs. L. Stewart will be one of the accompanists.

UNIVERSITY MUSIC

"Musical Studies at the University of Washington" was the subject of a lecture given by Miss Gwendolyn Harper, L.R.S.M., A.T.C.M., to members of the Victoria Music Teachers' Association and their friends at the Y.W.C.A. this week.

Miss Harper gave an outline of the summer course at the university. This course embraces the works of Bach and his fore-runners and French music since 1850.

The speaker told of the many happy incidents in the life of a music student at the university.

Reginald Cox, the president, was in the chair and thanked the speaker for her interesting address.

The next meeting of the association will be held on Wednesday next in Fletcher Brothers' salon at 835. Mrs. Alton Peebles will speak on "Negro Spirituals."

Members are advised that the general meeting in December will be held one week earlier than usual. A luncheon will be served.

City Hall Briefs

Projects undertaken by the city under the federal-provincial assistance legislation, whereby labor costs are borne by the higher governments, are not of sufficient scope to provide work for all applicants, it was announced at the city welfare office.

"We have work for about only 36 men and we are snowed under with applications," E. G. Snowden, relief officer, stated today. "We are unable to give work to anyone who has not been on relief for the last six months."

A permit for a $1,500 conversion project on premises of 732 Johnson Street, owned by the R. Bray estate, was issued by the city building inspector's department yesterday. The improvement will change the building into a restaurant.

Residents of the October Mansions, in a petition received at the City Hall today, protested any move to permit operation of a roller rink on their section of Fort Street.

Summonses will be issued this week by the collector of city road and poll taxes to those who have failed to meet their 1939 obligations. Prosecutions will follow the summonses.

Alberta Textbook On Reich Revised

EDMONTON (CP)—The Alberta Department of Education will appoint a committee to suggest revisions in the auxiliary schoolbook, "The World of Today," Deputy Minister G. Fred McNally said today.

Even before E. H. Starr, a Calgary school board candidate, protested about passages in the book in an election campaign speech Tuesday, the department had asked the authors and publishers to reread the book with a view to deleting any possible objectionable matter.

Mr. McNally stated the proposed small committee would not include the authors or any members of the department.

The book had been the subject of four protests to the department since the outbreak of war, Mr. McNally said.

The first complaint was received about six weeks ago when "somebody wrote in saying he objected to the part dealing with the Treaty of Versailles where it says the 'Germans' were compelled to sign a humiliating peace."

Then the co-authors, W. D. McDougall of the Calgary Normal School and Gilbert Paterson, assistant editor of the Ryerson Press, Toronto, were asked to reread the book. The Deputy Minister stated, the authors had agreed to delete any parts "likely to give offence to sensitive feelings of people in this time of war when feelings are sensitive."

Mr. McNally explained the book was only "a pupils' guide and not an authorized textbook."

Mr. Starr, whose complaint was the fourth received about the book, charged it contained "pernicious Nazi propaganda." He said it spoke at length of the misfortunes of Germany under the Allied blockade, yet nowhere "does one find the slightest criticism for the crimes committed by Germany prior to or during the 1914-18 war."

WHY SOME PEOPLE GROW OLD QUICK

Everybody should know the facts. Why do some people keep youthful, while others grow old quickly, before their time? Are you too busy to learn the truth? Are you prepared to face the facts and to admit them, if they apply to you? We say you may find new joy in living if you read and heed these frank statements.

Thousands of people just don't bother to do anything about constipation. They even refuse to believe they are constipated. They think that if a person is regular, that is all that matters. Occasionally they take "a good dose of something" when they need it. That is definitely not the way. The way to keep feeling fit, to keep long the years of youthful exuberance and well-being, is to keep the entire system free as possible from impurities and poisons. That means the blood, the kidneys, the intestines and the bowels.

To do that your body must get certain minerals in some way. We make no exaggerated claims for Kruschen Salt, but we recommend the "little daily dose" because Kruschen contains several valuable mineral salts in highly refined form. Each salt has its particular function. In combination they help rid your system of excess poisons each day. Thus free from the ageing effects of accumulated impurities you are much less apt to suffer from splitting headaches, acid indigestion, rheumatic pains, listlessness, because your excretory organs are encouraged to function normally.

Thousands upon thousands of people throughout the world refer to the general well-being it imparts as "that million-dollar Kruschen feeling". Start "the little daily dose" right away and just you see for yourself! At all drug counters 25c, 45c, 75c.
